

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAS. BUCHANAN,
Subject to the decision of
THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Daily Morning Post.
PHILLIPS & SMITH, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

PITTSBURGH, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25.

The proceedings of the Democratic supper have covered every other matter from our columns this morning.

DEMOCRATIC FESTIVAL.—The supper at the United States Hotel on Monday evening, was the most enthusiastic gathering of the democracy that we have ever witnessed. At nearly hour the hall was crowded with the democrats who had assembled to participate in the festivities of the occasion, and when supper was announced, two large tables, extending the whole length of the spacious dining room, were sufficient to accommodate the numerous guests.

The speeches of Judge WILKINS and FRANCIS R. SHAW, gave great zest to the occasion. The former eloquent orator, the former gentlewoman, is well known to the democracy of Allegheny, and at no time have they listened to him with more pleasure than on Monday evening. The success of the festival rendered the head of the table, in due time, the good cheer provided for the occasion disappeared, and the Secretaries proceeded to read the following:

GREAT DEMOCRATIC CELEBRATION:
Pursuant to the call of the Committee of Arrangements, a large number of the Democracy of Allegheny county, assembled at the United States Hotel, to partake of a dinner, prepared by the proprietor, Wm. B. Thompson, given in honor of the triumphant election of the whole Democratic Ticket.

At about 8 o'clock the room was crowded, and dinner being announced, RODY PATTERSON, Esq., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangement, proceeded to read the following list of guests:

President—Hon. CHARLES SHAHER.

Vice Presidents,

Hon. WM. PORTER, JOHN ANDERSON,

JAMES NEELY, JOHN SABER,

WILSON McCANDLESS, RODY PATTERSON,

JOHN BIRMINGHAM, E. HEIDELBERG,

ANDREW BURKE,

Scarcities,

James D. Thorburn,

Hiram Kaine,

George J. Buckley.

The president, after a few remarks, took his seat at the head of the table. In due time, the good cheer provided for the occasion disappeared, and the Secretaries proceeded to read the following:

REGULAR TOASTS.

1. The recent political triumph in Allegheny county. A glorious victory achieved by the democracy over their opponents after years of defeat and oppression. May it prove as lasting as the conquest itself was in the history of our country.

2. Our Officers Elect: Their best mode of showing themselves worthy the confidence reposed in them, will be by a faithful and disinterested discharge of their responsibilities, and adherence to the principles which elected them, and the distribution of their patronage among their political friends.

3. George Washington, the father of our Country: When we cause to reverent memory, then will we be enabled to do justice to his character.

4. Thomas Jefferson: As author of the Declaration of Independence: He is ranked among the greatest of our countrymen, the founder of the Democratic Party, his name and fame are co-existent with the history of the earth.

5. Andrew Jackson: The snows of six winters have whitened his temples, while they still unfurled the green banner encircles them.

6. The Union: The United States.

7. The Governor of Pennsylvania.

8. The Army and Navy of the United States: May they ever be ready to defend the liberty that the ballot box asserts.

9. James Buchanan: The distinguished senator, statesman, and champion of Democratic principles, Pennsylvania presents him to her sister states as her choice for the next Mayorality.

10. The Mechanics of Pittsburgh: The ocean floats the monuments of their skill, and the bulwarks of their freedom.

11. Women: Old nature awoke the lovely dear.

12. Our officers: The highest she classes! O!
