empty cask was cast overboard, and all hands composed themselves, in the best temper possible with themselves, each other, and all the world, Boniface not excepted.

Two hours and a half afterwards, the stage brought up for Grimes' for tea. For some time, the late dinner arrangements had not affected the appetites of the passengers as it had done at first, much to the surprise of the landlord and "agent," and not a little to his regret. On the occasion, however, his guests seemed more inclined to laugh than to eat, and finally left the table after having taken only one cup a piece, with "leaves" in proportion. The secret of this leaking out before they moved on, to the great merriment of Grimes and the coterie in his bar room, to whom one of the passengers related the joke. Among these was the editor of a country paper.

On the next morning, the whole story appeared in print, with names, places and all, detailed with much point and humor. This account, Parker, who most people thought knew about as much of the whole matter as any body, had put into the form of a handbill, two or three of which were circulated among the passengers in every stage. Of course Screwler soon became aware of this fact, and did not venture again to cheat the passengers out of their dinner, when they consented to eat all. But it happened two or three times a week, that a whole stage load would refuse to dine with him, and thus he would come off the loser. Finally he abandoned the profitless business of dining the stages, and fell back into his old ways.

Whoever goes that road now, gets a comfortable dinner, in good time, at Parker's, and should the old man feel in the humor, will have added, by the way of extra fare, a graphic sketch of the saying and doing at Screwler's, with which our readers have just been made acquainted.

FOR PRESIDENT,

JAS. BUCHANAN,

OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Subject to the decision of

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Daily Morning Post.

PHILLIPS & SMITH, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

PITTSBURGH, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1843.

To the Editors of the Post:

GENTLEMEN:—I find in your paper of this morning the following statements:

"These reasons may be sufficient to deter genuine Antimasons from supporting the "Ex-Grand Master, but it is quite a different thing with the editor of the Gazette. He, it is known, is a mason. He attempted to become an antimasonic oracle without even renouncing his allegiance to the Lodge, and now that he has destroyed the antimasonic organization in this county, why can he not go back to his old associates with much more consistancy than he could assume the editorial control of a paper that advocated the destruction of a society of which he was a member?"

You must be aware that there in enough asperity in editorial controversies when the truth is kept in view, and that when editors descend to falsehoods for the purpose of injuring the character of a cotemporary, they render themselves liable to the contempt of the community, and strike a heavy blow at the respectability of the press.

You must know that the statements you have made above have no foundation in fact. You cannot but know that it has been repeatedly stated by me in the Gazette, that I dissolved all connexion with Masonry more than ten years ago, and that I have since that time acted with the Antimasonic party. That I formerly belonged to a Masonic Lodge, for the space of two or three months, I have never denied. Whatever guilt I incurred for so doing, I have endeavored to atone for by expressing my unqualified abhorance of the institution, ever since I became convinced of its evils, many years ago.

I was not a member of a Masonic Lodge when I assumed the editorial control of the Gazette, nor had I been for many years before, and I hope you will do me the justice to inform your readers of the truth in the case.

Respectfully, yours,

D. N. WHITE.

We willingly insert the above article, which we find in the Gazette of Saturday, as we have no hesitation in awarding to our contemporary that measure of justice which he has withheld from one of the editors of this paper in a matter wherein he has suffered much misrepresentation and abuse.

It is proper to state here that we never knew that Mr. WHITE had abondoned Masonry until he publicly announced the fact through the Gazette, soon after he became its publisher. That annunciation was drawn from him by a publication in the Mercury, charging him with being a "mason and a whig," and such we then believed him to be—as such we know he was then looked upon by prominent Antimasons. It was, perhaps, our misfortune not to know the views of Mr. WHITE upon Masonry before he made them public, but we have the consolation to know that members of the party he acted with were in a like predicament—and if we have done him injustice in the matter, we trust that the publication of his card will set all right.

FROM TEXAS.—The Galveston correspondent of the N. O. Tropic tells a long story about discoveries made by GEN. MURPHY, our charge in Texas. The substance of the news is that Governor Houston has entered into an arrangement with agents of the British and Mexican governments, by which Texas is to be ceded to Great Britain—slavery is to be abolished, and Houston is to be appointed Governor General of Texas for life, with a high sounding title! It is not unlikely that Gen. MURPHY may imagine he has discovered something momentous, but incline to the opinion that the whole will prove to be a stupendous mare's nest, for we think Gen. M. could be bumbugged about as readily as any other diplomatist the country has.

By the latest advices from Mexico, we see that the news of the rupture between the British and Mexican ministers is confirmed. This does not agree with Gen. Murphy's disclosures.

☞ Gov. DUNN has been arrested in Providence, whither he went with the intention of taking up his residence.

INFAMOUS BARARITY.—It is stated in the New York Sun that MONROE EDWARDS was tied up to the whipping post, and received one hundred lashes on the bare back, as a punishment for his late attempt to escape. It is revolting to the feelings of humanity to think that such a barbarous custom should be tolerated at the present day, or that there should be among our citizens savages sufficiently inhuman to inflict it. If any thing would justify the continuance of this barbarous system it is the hope that retributive justice may yet apply the lash to the bare backs of those who now approve its infliction on others.

WILMINGTON ELOPEMENT CASE.—The Delaware Republican gives the following particulars of this case. Wm. H. Schroeder, a journeyman shoemaker, worked for and boarded in the family of Mr. Hagany, a shoe merchant. The young lady was in the habit of frequenting Mr. Hagany's. She is young, only 15 or 16. Schroeder contrived to induce her to go to Philadelphia to marry him. She did so—they went to two or three ministers, who refused to marry them without her parents' consent. At the last minister's there was considerable conversation. She had never seen a marriage performed—he (Schroeder) told her they were married, and they since boarded in the same house, until found and arrested by High Constable Moody, in Philadelphia, on Monday morning last. He is a man of 30 or 35 years of age, and has a wife and family in Frederick, Maryland.—He was committed in default of bail in $500, for further hearing, to answer the charge of abduction, &c. The parents of the young lady are highly respectable, pious people, and are distressed beyond measure at the unfortunate occurrence.

ODD FELLOWS.—The Baltimore Sun notices a law that has been brought into the Canadian Parliament, which threatens the annihilation of the Order of Odd Fellows, in that province. The law is a handling of the government. The Canadian press is generally in favor of the Odd Fellows, and a confident hope is expressed that the institution will be saved. Deputations have gone to Kingston to explain its benevolent and charitable nature.

[COMMUNICATED.]

A LITTLE TOO BAD.—We see by a letter to a gentleman in Allegheny city, from a friend, a Locofoco, now sojourning in the wilds of Michigan, that for the last two months he has been living on acorns; this is really too bad; we are aware that the Locofocos have, for the last two years, been skimming coons in every direction, but to commence eating them literally, is carrying the joke a little too far.

COLONEL JOHNSON AND COMMODORE ELLIOTT.—A committee of the friends of Colonel Johnson, in Philadelphia, lately invited Commodore Elliot to meet the former on his arrival in that city. The Commodore makes the following characteristic reply:

WEST CHESTER, PA. Oct. 27, 1843.

MY DEAR SIR:—I am in the receipt of your favor of the 26th. It would give me great pleasure to receive and accept the invitation of the Committee of Arrangements to meet my old, valued and faithful friend Colonel JOHNSON, who has twice yet back known to abandon the trail of an enemy, or desert a friend. My first acquaintance was made with the Colonel a few minutes after the close of the battle of the 5th October, 1813, slung in a blanket, used as a litter, his clothes drenched with blood. I had peculiar pleasure in the embrace and assignation of a boat and medical aid.—My friend also took a from a large and dependant family, as probably the same fiend, who led the Indian forces and whom Colonel Johnson slew, of this I have no doubt, from an inspection of the body of Tecumseh and the slaughtered animal which the Colonel rode, and near his body, I came at once to the conclusion, that he and Tecumseh were personal combatants.

I had proposed to remain in the same secluded life I have been passing under the sentence of my peers, until called on for the performance of those duties of my own peculiar profession, I however will with pleasure meet Col. Johnson. I thank you and my other friends for their kind congratulations on my restoration to service, and pray you to receive my kindly regards,

Very truly yours,

J. D. ELLIOTT.

Col. J. Sidney Jones, Philadelphia.

PARDON.—The Doylestown Democrat says, Joseph Clegg, convicted with Miller and Rhodes, at the late Court in that county, of a conspiracy to defraud his creditors, has been pardoned by the Governor. He was taken before his honor Judge Ruckman, and his discharge opposed by John FOX, Esq., counsel on the part of the creditors, on the ground that the pardon, on the face of it, showed that the Governor was deceived in the matter. He was, however, discharged.

REBECCA AND HER DAUGHTERS.—This singular appellation assumed by the Welsh rioters is traced by the English papers to the 24th book of Genesis, "And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister; be thou the mother of thousands of millions; and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

TWO MEN DROWNED.—The Express Mail on her passage from New Orleans to Cincinnati, landed at Vicksburgh, and while there, two men in stepping on board of the wharf boat, fell between the two boats and were immediately drowned.

STEAMBOAT COLLISION.—The Cincinnati Commercial of the first says:—"The Valley Forge was run into by the Arkansas Mail on Friday night, last, between here and Louisville, and did considerable damage.—The Valley Forge is repairing at Louisville."

GUBERNATORIAL QUESTION.

We take a note of all that has come under our observation during the past week, in reference to this question. The Pittsburgh Morning Post contains the proceedings of a large and enthusiastic Democratic celebration which took place in that city on the 23d ult., in honor of the recent victory achieved by the Democracy of Allegheny county. Hon. CHAS. SHALER presided, and spirited addresses were delivered by FRANCIS R. SHUNK, Esq., and Gen. WILLIAM BRACKENRIDGE, Esq., and others. Among the sentiments elicited on the occasion we discover many favorable to Mr. SHUNK, and others friendly to Judge WILKINS for the office of Governor. The former largely predominate.—Harrisburgh Union.

THE CASH PRINCIPLE.

This subject has swayed the American community backward and forward for just about one hundred years. Van Buren settled it as we supposed. Harrison deranged it. But it will yet come up again and eventually it will prevail.

Let us to-day give a paragraph or two in regard to the all-absorbing matter, from an ante-revolutionary paper, which spoke then as we ought to speak now, sentiments in regard to the Government Treasury system.

Here are the extracts we have made, the originals whereof are in possession of Mr. Stonehill, in Fulton st:

"THE NEW YORK WEEKLY JOURNAL. No. XXX. containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

"MUNDAY, May, 27th, 1734.

"MR. ZENGER—I must beg you will insert the following Sentiments in your Journal, and you'll oblige your Wellwisher, JOHANNIS EBORACUS.

"No wise Nation in the World ever trusted to the sole Management, more Money and absolute Direction of its own Magistrates, when it could help doing it; and no Series of Magistrates ever had absolute Power over any Nation, but they turned the same to its Ruin and their own Gratifications and ill judged Praises.

"MR. ZENGER—In your last Journal I find a Letter from John Farmer, desiring some of your correspondents to touch upon the Cash in this Province.

"I am of an Opinion that we want a good deal of Cash in the Province. That it is absolutely necessary to carry on a Trade, and that it is at present the only Returns we have to make to Great Britain for the Goods we receive from thence; but how to obtain a competent Stock of current Cash seems to be the Difficulty the Province labours under at present, and in my poor Opinion nothing can so well remedy the Evil as extending our Trade and Manufactures; and if we can by our industry make the Ballance of Trade in our favour, it is so much clear Gain, which will soon give us a competent Stock of current Cash.

"I know many People are fond of striking Bills of Credit, and think that will add to our current Cash. I believe every man, when he comes seriously to consider the nature of Paper Money, the terrible condition it has reduced some of our Neighbours to, he will think it will daily add to our Misfortunes, and not to our Cash;—one plain Consequence of it will be this—just so much Paper Money as you make, just so much less specie, you will retain in the Country; and had we Paper enough for the Currency of the Province, Silver and Gold would soon become as scarce here as it is in Boston or Carolina."

☞ What an admonition this is, coming from the year 1734, before the day of our Revolution; and nearly one century before the day of Andrew Jackson and Martin Van Buren, who advocate precisely the same doctrines.—N. Y. Plebian.

☞ A man with eleven daughters was lately complaining that he found it hard to live.

"You must husband your time," said the other, "and then you will do well enough."

"I could do much better if I could husband my daughters," was the reply.

MARRIED.—On the 3d instant, by Alderman R. MORROW, Mr. JEREMIAH WILCOX to Miss CATHARINE SHERWIN, both of Chautauque county, N. Y.
