THE Gentleman of Pittsburgh.
THE subscriber most respectfully informs the gentlemen of this city and vicinity, that he has commenced the BOOT and SHOE business in Fourth street, opposite Mayor's office. Having been foreman in some of the most fashionable boot shops in the Eastern cities, and having furnished himself with the best French and American calf skins, he hopes by his attention to business to merit a share of public patronage. To those gentlemen who have kindly patronized him, he returns his sincere thanks, and can with confidence appeal for the goodness of his work and knowledge of his business. P. HERRIGAN.
May 11.

William Adair, Boot and Shoe Maker.
Liberty st. opposite the head of Smithfield.

THE subscriber having bought out the stock of the late Thomas Ruffery, deceased, has commenced business at the old stand of Mr. R., and is prepared to execute all descriptions of work in his line, in the best manner, and on the shortest notice.
He keeps constantly on hand a large assortment of the finest of all descriptions, and of the best quality. He solicits the patronage of the public and of the craft.
W. M. ADAIR.
sep 10-12

David Clark, Agt.
FASHIONABLE BOOT MAKER, has removed to No. 34 Market street, between Second and Third streets, where he would be happy to see his customers, and all others who feel disposed to patronize him. He uses nothing but first rate stock, and employs the best of workmen; and as he gives his constant personal attention to business, he trusts that he will deserve and receive a fair share of patronage.

NEW CLOTHING.
Cheaper and better than can be had at any other place west of the mountains.

AT THE THREE BIRD DOORS.
No. 151, Liberty St., near the Jackson Foundry.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that his full stock of Goods comprises a larger and more varied assortment than has ever been opened at any house in this city, and from the favorable terms at which his purchases were made, he is enabled to sell clothing cheaper than it can be had in any other establishment in this city. He would request the public to call and examine his splendid assortment of the articles of dress, and from the excellence of the material, the style of workmanship and the very low price at which all his articles are sold, he feels confident that every one will find it to their advantage to purchase at the "Three Bird Doors." As none but the best cutters and workmen are employed, all his articles are made to order, and in the most superior manner not surpassed by any other establishment in the city.
