Evans' Chamomile Pills.

ABRAHAM J. CLEMER, residing at 66, Mott street, New York, was afflicted with Dyspepsia in its most aggravated form. The symptoms were violent headache, general debility, fever, costiveness, cough, heartburn, pain in the chest and stomach always after eating, impaired appetite, sensation of sinking at the stomach, furred tongue, nausea, with frequent vomitings, dizziness towards night and restlessness. These had continued upwards of a twelvemonth, when, on consulting Dr. Wm. Evans, 100 Chatham street, and submitting to his ever successful and agreeable mode of treatment, the patient was completely restored to health in the short space of one month, and grateful for the incalculable benefit derived, gladly came forward and volunteered the above statement. Better Bargains than ever, at the Three Big Doors.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his customers and the public generally, that notwithstanding the unprecedented sales at the Three Big Doors, during the present season; he has still on hand the largest and most varied assortment of elegant CLOTHING that can be bought west of the mountains.—The public may rest assured that all articles offered at his store are manufactured from FRESH GOODS, purchased in the Eastern markets this spring and made into garments by Pittsburgh workmen.

In consequence of the multiplication of slop shops in our city, filled with pawn brokers clothes and the musty, cast off garments of former seasons, from the eastern cities, the public should be cautious to ascertain the character of the establishments in which they are invited to purchase, before they part with their money. The articles offered at several of the concerns in this city, are the mere offals of New York and Philadelphia slop shops, and sent out here to be palmed off on the Pittsburgh public, Purchasers should be on their guard against those impositions, and they may rely on the fact that no establishment that advertises eastern made Clothing, can give as good an article or as advantageous bargains as can be had at the "Three Big Doors."

The public will please remember that all the subscriber's garments are made in this city, by competent workmen, and not gathered up like the goods now offered by the "birds of passage" from the shreds and patches of eastern slop shops. It will always be his endeavor to maintain the reputation that the "Three Big Doors" have obtained for furnishing a superior style of CLOTHING in every respect, and at prices below those of any other establishment.

He would again return his thanks to his friends and the public for the unprecedented patronage bestowed upon his establishment, and believing that they have found it to their advantage to deal with him, he would repeat his invitation to all those who wish to purchase Clothing of every description at the lowest price, to call at No. 151, LIBERTY ST. JOHN M'CLOSKEY.

Look at This.

THE attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this Section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and is known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility.

To the Agent, Mr. J. KIRBY.

I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a Cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness, and agrees well with my diet,—and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can sincerely recommend it to all others similarly afflicted. J. MINNICK, Borough of Chambersburgh.

Call for Bargains

AT THE THREE BIG DOORS,

No. 151, Liberty St., near the Jackson Foundry.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that his fall stock of Goods comprises a larger and more varied assortment than has ever been opened at any house in this city, and from the favorable terms at which his purchases were made, he is enabled to sell clothing cheaper than it can be had in any other establishment in this city. He would request the public to call and examine his splendid assortment of all the articles of dress, and from the excellence of the material, the style of workmanship and the very low price at which all his articles are sold, he feels confident that every one will find it to their advantage to purchase at the "Three Big Doors."

As none but the best cutters and workmen are employed, orders to make clothing will be attended to in a manner not surpassed by any other establishment in the city.

He would again return his thanks to his friends and the public for the unprecedented patronage bestowed upon his establishment, and believing that they have found it to their advantage to deal with him, he would repeat his invitation to all those who wish to purchase Clothing of every description at the lowest price, to call at No. 151, Liberty st. Iron Safes.

I RESPECTFULLY inform the public that I have and keep always on hand an assortment of Fire Proof Safes. The price, in consequence of the materials and labor being much lower, is reduced about thirty per cent. They are kept for sale at my shop, in Sixth street, above Smithfield, next to the church on the corner of 6th street—as also with Atwood, Jones & Co., and Dalzell & Fleming. In regard to the quality of my safes I leave those persons who have purchased and will purchase my safes to attest the utility of them. I desire no newspaper puffs on my safes; justice and truth warrant me in informing the public that all my safes which have been in buildings burnt down for several years since I commenced have preserved all the papers, books, &c., which they contained. I have a card containing a number of certificates of the same, which are in circulation and in my hands and the agentes. JOHN DENNING.

A GLANCE AT PARIS.

ITS POPULATION—PUBLIC GARDENS, &c. &c.

Mr. Weed still continues his valuable letters from abroad. In one of the latest we find some interesting items in relation to the great city of the French.

The River Seine divides Paris with almost geographical accuracy. What was originally Paris, is now a centrally situated Island, connected with both shores by bridges. The magnificent church of Notre Dame, where Napoleon was crowned, is upon this island.

In 1836, there was a population in Paris of 900,000, exclusive of soldiers and strangers. Of the 24,000 deaths that year, over 9000 occurred in the Hospitals and of the 29,000 births during the same year, nearly 5000 infants were ushered into this "breathing world" at the Hospital. There are 30,000 paupers in the Hospital of Paris.

The city rests upon yellow marble formation, from which its Hotels, Mansions, Castles, Palaces, &c., are almost wholly constructed. This marble when taken from the quarries, is scarcely harder than chalk, but by exposure to the atmosphere acquires solidity endures like granite.

The expence of the city amount to from forty eight to fifty millions of francs annually, of which sum thirty millions of francs is derived from their "Octroi Tax." This is a duty paid upon all article for consumption brought into the metropolis, of which wine is the principal. Indeed the amount paid on wine far exceeds that derived from all other articles. The receipts into the city Treasury for several years past, have exceeded the expenditures by several million of francs annually. Guards are stationed at all the gates and avenues leading into the city, to prevent smuggling.

Mr. Weed has gathered some items from Bulwer's book on France. Cattle, it is stated, vary in value from 300 to 350 francs per head. Sheep from 20 to 25 francs. The price of bread is regulated twice a month and in ordinary seasons amounts to about three pences per pound. There were 56,707 tradesmen's licenses issued in 1840, for which 8,529,927 francs were paid to the city. Mechanics receive from three to five frs. per day, and work from 10 to 12 hours. Laborers receive only from 25 to 35 sous per day. The shops are all kept by young women, who receive their board and from 150 to 400 francs per annum, according to their intelligence and attractions. But few journeymen and laborers work on Sunday afternoon or Monday morning. Fuel is very expensive here. Wood is sold in baskets, in dimensions something less than a bushel, at five francs per basket. From the departments above Paris, about 14,000 boats arrive annually with the productions of the soil; and from Rouen and Havre about 1000 boats come freighted with colonial produce. The poultry and game consumed cost 7,459,041 francs, in 1840; butter, 11,507,696 frs; oysters 1,901,974; eggs 5,316, 938. There is a large Floral trade here. Flowers are for sale in all the market places, and the amount received for them, on fete days, is said frequently to exceed 30,000 francs!

The rides about Paris are cheaper than in London or New York. A cab in which four persons rides comfortably, is required to take you to any part of the city for one franc and three quarters, or if by the hour for two francs. A cabriolet, holding two persons will take you to any part of Paris for 30 sous, or by the hour one franc. You are expected to add two or three sous as a gratuity to the driver. Omnibus lines are established throughout Paris, and to all places of interest throughout its environs. You ride wherever you please about Paris, in an omnibus, for six sous.

The Garden of the Tuileries contains 67 acres, and is situated upon the North Bank of the Seine, fronting the Palace of the Tuileries on the east, and the Palace de la Concorde on the west. Near the Palace are two insular flower gardens. An abundant and refreshing foliage is furnished by groves of large chestnut, elm, orange and lime trees, interspersed in all directions with Statues, Chairs are found all about the garden, for the use of which you pay two sous. On Sunday afternoons, when the weather is warm, the garden frequently exhibits a dense mass of people. Among the statues are figures of Prometheus, Alexander, Theseus, Cincinnatus, Spartacus, Themistocles, Ditus, Flora, and Venus, &c. In the Summer the garden is open from 7 A. M. until 9 in the evening, when guards, by the beat of the drum, warn the Visitors out and close the gates."

THE INSTRUMENTS OF REVOLUTION.

OLOZAGA AND PRIM.—The Paris correspondent of the National Intelligencer gives a sad account of two individuals who were deeply concerned in the recent revolution in Spain. One of them, Olozaga, is now Envoy Extraordinary at Paris, from the new Government at Madrid; although not long since, he was the representative at Paris of Espartero; he was then simple Don Sullastarno Olozaga: he returns as Baron Do Olozaga, Knight of the Golden Fleece, Minister Plenipotentiary of the Lopez Cabinet and of Navarez, Military dictator—

The letter writer adds:—"I observed the former in the Paris saloons, a gifted person altogether seemingly earnest, as if he was usually eloquent, in the cause of the Duke; and I remember to have written to you a fine anecdote of the boldness and address with which he entered without invitation the drawing-room of the Ex-Regent on the anniversary festival of her daughter Queen Isabel, amid the Spanish exiles who formed Christiana's court and scowled on the intruder as he delivered the congratulations of Espartero and his own with all the ease and confidence imaginable.

No suspicion entered my mind that he was bought and playing a concerted mockery. I began to doubt when I read of his efforts, on his return to Madrid, to cement an overflowing opposition to the Duke, and I enquired of Spaniards in this capital what should be inferred from his conduct in the Cortes. His share—a large one—in the perplexities and overthrow of Espartero and his present position, explain all his irretrievable dishonor."

The other individual is Col. Prim, who was the Colonel Pride of the Cortes, an extreme exaltado, a fierce Republican, the trusted organ and leader of the Republicans of Barcelona. He escaped from Madrid to organize the insurrection against Espartero; on its success he obtained the title of Count from the new rulers. "Down with the Count!" was the cry at Barcelona from his former myrmidons when he reappeared there with his title and a high military command.

The latest advices are, that this same Colonel was slaughtering and capturing his old friends, and co-operating in the bombardment of his "heroic city," con amore. The Barcelona Constitutional furnishes this biographical sketch:

"Prim, during the late war was the protege of the Baron de Meer, and is still his intimate friend. Prim had the high honor of being made deputy of the nation, and while he publicly combatted the Gonzales Infante Ministry, did not hesitate to receive from the same low commission, ignoble and degrading to any man of honor, and especially to a military man—a commission of espionage; a commission that he exchanged on going to visit Maria Christina, accompanied by her banker Carriquiri.

"Prim kissed the hand of Maria Christina. Prim lived in the house of Carriquiri. Prim brought from Paris jewels of great value. Prim made presents of these jewels to Perez Ventos, and other friends of despotism. Prim swims in opulence and prodigality, goes out constantly in his carriage like another King, and through him his family swims in opulence
