Evans' Chamomile Pills.

ABRAHAM J. CLEMER, residing at 66, Mott street, New York, was afflicted with Dyspepsia in its most aggravated form. The symptoms were violent headache, giddiness, fever, costiveness, cough, heartburn, pain in the chest and stomach always after eating, impaired appetite, sensation of sinking at the stomach, furred tongue, nausea, with frequent vomitings, dizziness towards night and restlessness. These had continued upwards of a twelvemonth, when, on consulting Dr. Wm. Evans, 100 Chatham street, and submitting to his ever successful and agreeable mode of treatment, the patient was completely restored to health in the short space of one month, and grateful for the incalculable benefit derived, gladly came forward and volunteered the above statement. Better Bargains than ever, at the Three Big Doors.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his customers and the public generally, that notwithstanding the unprecedented sales at the Three Big Doors, during the present season; he has still on hand the largest and most varied assortment of elegant CLOTHING that can be bought west of the mountains.—The public may rest assured that all articles offered at his store are manufactured from FRESH GOODS, purchased in the Eastern markets this spring and made in the garments by Pittsburgh workmen.

In consequence of the multiplication of slop shops in our city, filled with pawn brokers clothes and the musty, cast off garments of former seasons, from the eastern cities, the public should be cautious to ascertain the character of the establishments in which they are invited to purchase, before they part with their money. The articles offered at several of the concerns in this city, are the mere offals of New York and Philadelphia slop shops, and sent out here to be palmed off on the Pittsburgh public. Purchasers should be on their guard against these impositions, and they may rely on the fact that no establishment that advertises eastern made Clothing, can give as good an article or as advantageous bargains as can be had at the "Three Big Doors."

The public will please remember that all the subscriber's garments are made in this city, by competent workmen, and not gathered up like the goods now offered by the "birds of passage" from the shreds and patches of eastern slop shops. It will always be his endeavor to maintain the reputation that the "Three Big Doors" have obtained for furnishing a superior style of CLOTHING in every respect, and at prices below those of any other establishment.

He would again return his thanks to his friends and the public for the unprecedented patronage bestowed upon his establishment, and believing that they have found it to their advantage to deal with him, he would repeat his invitation to all those who wish to purchase Clothing of every description at the lowest price, to call at No. 151, LIBERTY ST. JOHN M'CLOSKEY.

Look at This.

THE attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this Section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and is known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility.

To the Agent, Mr. J. KIRBY.

I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a Cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness, and agrees well with my diet,—and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can sincerely recommend it to all others similarly afflicted. J. MINNICK, Borough of Chambersburgh.

Call for Bargains

AT THE THREE BIG DOORS,

No. 151, Liberty St., near the Jackson Foundry.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that his fall stock of Goods comprises a larger and more varied assortment than has ever been opened at any house in this city, and from the favorable terms at which his purchases were made, he is enabled to sell clothing cheaper than it can be had in any other establishment in this city. He would request the public to call and examine his splendid assortment of all the articles of dress, and from the excellence of the material, the style of workmanship and the very low price at which all his articles are sold, he feels confident that every one will find it to their advantage to purchase at the "Three Big Doors."

As none but the best cutters and workmen are employed, orders to make clothing will be attended to in a manner not surpassed by any other establishment in the city.

He would again return his thanks to his friends and the public for the unprecedented patronage bestowed upon his establishment, and believing that they have found it to their advantage to deal with him, he would repeat his invitation to all those who wish to purchase Clothing of every description at the lowest price, to call at No. 151, Liberty st. Iron Safes.

I RESPECTFULLY inform the public that I have and keep always on hand an assortment of Fire Proof Safes. The price, in consequence of the materials and labor being much lower, is reduced about thirty per cent. They are kept for sale at my shop, in Sixth street, above Smithfield, next to the church on the corner of 6th street—as also with Atwood, Jones & Co., and Dalzell & Fleming. In regard to the quality of my safes I leave those persons who have purchased and will purchase my safes to attest the utility of them. I desire no newspaper puffs on my safes; justice and truth warrant me in informing the public that all my safes which have been in buildings burnt down for several years since I commenced have preserved all the papers, books, &c., which they contained. I have a card containing a number of certificates of the same, which are in circulation and in my hands and the agentes. JOHN DENNING.

CONSTABLE & BURKE,

Fifth Street, between Wood and Smithfield, Pittsburgh, Pa.

THE subscribers present their respects to their numerous friends for their former liberal patronage, and would take this method of assuring them and the public generally that all future favors will be duly appreciated. Their articles have been fully tested, of which sufficient testimony will be given to any inquirer.

The principles of their locks and safes are not surpassed in the Union.

The price also is considerably lessened, and will be found as low, if not below any other responsible house in the Union.

We would take this opportunity of thanking the various Editors of this city and elsewhere, who have spoken so highly of us and our safes.

The public are respectfully invited to examine our articles before purchasing elsewhere, feeling assured the superiority of our manufacture will be apparent to all candid spectators.

PYRAMIDS OF EGYPT.

The Boston Transcript gives a synopsis of a lecture by Mr. Gliddon on Tuesday evening, from which we quote the following:

"Cursorily glancing over the nations regarding the pyramids contained in the works of the last two centuries, he brought forward some of the wrong opinions, before presenting the right. Such as, attributing their erection to the first children of Noah, in the hope of elevating themselves above the waters in case of the return of the deluge! The supposition that they were built by the Patriarch Seth, before the flood for his tomb; and by the Hykshos and Celtic Druids. A favorite theory has been to make the hapless Israelites heir workmen—whilst Calmet came in for a slap for his attempt to prove that Moses and Aaron were the foremen of the work. Some writers have made them the granaries of Joseph, or his tomb—and again the tomb of Pharaoh who was drowned in the Red Sea. This last idea was refuted at once by the fact that the erection of the 39 pyramids in Egypt antedate to Abraham by many generations, and that neither Joseph or Pharaoh could be buried in 39 places at once! Some writers assert that they were erected by captive Trojans; a thousand years before Troy was built. More recent writers have tried to demonstrate that the Pyramids were built solely "to square the circle," or for vast reservoirs in which the waters of the Nile were purified. They have been thought to be sanctuaries of oracles—astronomical observatories—and, oddest idea of all, raised as the burial place of the bull Apis; and possibly to receive the remains of a cow. The day is passed, he said, when we are forced to accept as the emanations of Greek or Roman original wisdom, truths, the primitive source of which in Egypt, is attested by existing monuments as belonging to ages long before Moses.

But, to the facts about the Pyramids. Mr. Gliddon said, that as to the epoch of their construction, they were built between Noah and Abraham, in the parallel of Bible chronology; and between Moses, the 1st Pharaoh of Egypt, and the accession of the 16th Thothan dynasty in the scale of hieroglyphical chronology. They all existed, and many of them were ancient in B. C. 2272. They all are 4000 years old, and some of them near 5000. They were built by the Egyptian children of Ham—the Cuenesian and Asiatic descendants of Noah, who colonized Egypt after the flood, and become Egyptians. As to the objects of the Pyramids, they are exceedingly sepulchral, being the royal tombs of those Egyptian kings who died between the 1st and 12th dynasty of Manetho.

The lecturer next proceeded to remark upon the periods and progress of the modern explorations at the Pyramids of Memphis, "cutting up" in the onset, the speculations of uninformed travelers from Bruce in 1763 to any ignorant any-body else in 1831—including Shaw, Denon, Dr. Clarke, "poor Mr. Silk Buckingham," and the still poorer Mr. St. John." In the present year Mr. Gliddon triumphantly declared, that the truths of positive research and discovery had enabled the modern school of hierology to "pass the sponge of oblivion over all the thoughts" of such imaginative travelers.

Mr. Gliddon pays little attention to any opinion previous to the era of the French and English expeditions to Egypt in 1798 and 1802, the result of which was two great works, the description "de l'Egypte" at Paris, and Hamilton's Egyptiaca at London. Between 1816—1829, Caviglia, Salt, Belzoni, Jumel, Baron Von Minutoli and Dr Marucchi had made explorations in the pyramids, discovering some new passages, clearing away sand, &c., but found nothing satisfactory to reward them; and it was not until 1825 that Champollion's interpretation was brought to bear upon these massy structures. Messrs. Wilkinson, Burton and others, explored them topographically and proved their sepulchral utilities, and in 1828-29, the French and Tuscan missions under Champollion and Rosellini added new facts to the investigations of their English colleagues.

In 1837, Col Edward Vyse, an English cavalry officer, visited Egypt, spent thousands of pounds in pyramidal excavations, and rendered the world indebted for what is now known about these monuments. At Col. Vyse's expense, Mr. Perring, a scientific engineer, devoted his time to the same work—the result of all of which has been the publication of Col. Vyse's magnificent folio and quarto volumes, to which Mr. Gliddon acknowledges his indebtedness for knowledge that exists in no other work in the world. The Egyptian Society and a few private individuals have verified hierological knowledge to the close of 1841. A new era date from 1842; and as a clear knowledge of Egyptian history is possessed from 2000 years B. C., it is on the pyramid built long before then, that the attention of the savans of Europe is now concentrated.

On this hoped for information, depends all knowledge of the human race between Mizraim and Abraham; now a void of time. The Prussian Scientific Mission under Prof. Lepsius are directing their efforts to this great end—whilst the scientific and curious are anxiously expecting the great Prussian Work, in which many astounding facts, as hinted in private correspondence, and expressed in official documents will be presented.

FIRST RATE LOT OF PUNS.

The following humorous "Review of the Market," we cut from the N. O. Crescent City. It is rich.

The supply of wool has been light, and seders have been fleeced. Some buyers have purchased on skears. Carpets are lively, but they will be down as soon as the weather gets cold. Holders have "created a dust" in the article during the past week. The bust market is tight, and holders are unwilling to let go. Shoes are flat, and pumps in no demand, except in dry weather. Stockings come higher than socks, though the supply of the latter is short. Shawls are cheaper than they were, being entitled to draw-back. The same may be said of ladies' India rubber garters. There are few gloves on hand, and we notice a disposition to finger in the article. Bonnets have taken a rise—behind, and holders are firm, we are informed of some transactions in this article, that won't bear daylight, but we have heard no report. "Bolting Cloth" is not in demand, as some of the sub-treasurers in this country have 'Swartwouted.' Mohair is not called for, owing to the general cultivation of whiskers. Aprons are quiet—Collars are grasped at occasionally—Cuffs are common, particularly in families, and takers are shy—the enquiry for curls was dampened last week by the rain—Chemisetts are not so low as they were, and we anticipate a rise (in the neck) as soon as cold weather appears. Hinges are uncertain and open wide doors for purchasers. Tailors' geese are in demand, as Christmas draws near—at least they seam so. Bottles are asked for—those without corks being preferred. Holders are not very anxious to let go, though when they do they dispose for draught at short sight. Fans are neglected, and holders have cooled off. Curled hair is down—from the cranium to the chin. Curled moo-sin demand by the negroes who have brought the business to a head. Women's lips and other sweet meats are demanded. We hear of some operations, in 'spite of the teeth.' Few are taken on speculation since the passage of the bankrupt act. Corsets hold their own' and sometimes more; whalebone, on this account, gives a little, and the cotton market is improved thereby. Belts are tight.

LOTTERY "POLICES" AND TRICKS.

They have a regular system of Telegraphs in New York, for the purpose of conveying the drawn numbers in the various lotteries to that city in a few minutes. Look-outs are regularly arranged, the object being to enable folks to "policy" on the numbers, and make "hits" to a handsome amount. Some men have grown rich at this singular business. St. John's steeple is closely watched by the policy dealers, in order not to sell beyond the minute in which the news may be expected to arrive. Sometimes a rascal
