AILY POST. MORNING NOVEMBER 25, 1843. TESBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR NOVEMBERS James Thompson Josiah King William Barker. Foreign News .- We publish Foreign Naws one day later than our cotemporaries.

THE AQUADUCT .- Our neighbors and friends of Afferthery city are; we understand, much elated with an idea, they have got into their heads, that the coming winter will destroy the Aqueduct, and that the Legislature will refuse to vote an appropriation for rebuilding it. The reasons they give for this opinion, Evan's Safety Guards for preventing Explosion of may brimay not be well grounded, and nre as follows: Steam Botters against those dreamin insasters. For more form the city to be proposed to construct on Rail road from this city to Baltimore, and thus cut off from Philadelphia much of the western trade which she now enjoys. In that was that all our forwarding business by the Canal would be done in Allegheny City. We have thought it right to mention this matter, that those who have the prosperity of Pittsburgh at 16. may take measures to acquaint themselves of the man life. They do not charge more than other boats grounds upon which these opinions are held, and to their accommodations in other respects are equal, and neighbor to gain any undue advantage over us. CAUGHT AGAIN .- The person who committed the *thefts at Carson's tavern, in Allegheny, noticed in our AMARANTH, Riper of Thursday, was caught stealing at Murdock's ADELAIDE, tavern, on Water Street, yesterday foreacon. He was ASHLAND, taken before the Mayor and after an examination was BRILLIANT, committed. We understand that the Superintendant BRUNETTE of the Penitentiary recognized him as a convict who had BREAKWATER, BRIDGEWATER, estructed at the expense of the state, but it is wel

O' CHRIST HEALING THE SICK .- We understand that this "is the last day of the exhibition of this magnificent painting. It will close this evening at 41 o'clock, and if there are any who have not yet seen it, we CECELIA would advise them to visit it this forenoon. It is the ntention of the proprietor to exhibit it in New Or- CLIPPER, leans during the approaching winter, and from the well known liberality of the people of that city, we COLUMBIANA, ave no doubt but he will be well patronized.
