

DAILY POST.

MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 27, 1843.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

James Thompson—Joseph King—William Barker.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We have a number of communications on hand which we will publish as soon as possible.

"H. L." will always be welcome to our columns.

BURNED.—The main pipe, leading from the Water Works to the Basin, burst on Saturday, on Fifth near Wood street, and the water had to be stopped off in consequence.

STEAMBOAT COLLISION.—We understand that the Allegheny Belle ran into the Ida on Friday evening, a short distance above the city, and injured her considerably.

SHARK MEETING.—The license of the hour which a large number of the signatures to the petition have received, rendered it impossible for us to publish them in this morning's paper. They will all be printed on the handbill.

HOOVER'S LIX.—We have been using for some days past, this excellent ink, and we have no hesitation in saying that it is an article well worthy the patronage of the public. It is for sale at Cook's Periodical office, 4th street.

YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE SOCIETY.—The anniversary of the Young Men's Bible Society will be celebrated at the First Presbyterian Church this evening. Exercises to commence at 6 o'clock.

CHURCH.—Prayer, by Rev. Dr. Heron, Annual Report, Resolutions.

CLERGY.—First Resolution, Rev. Dr. Riddell, Rev. J. L. Whitwell.

CLERGY.—Second Resolution, Rev. Charles Cook, Rev. Wm. H. Smith.

CLERGY.—Fourth Resolution, Rev. A. W. Black, Rev. Wesley Kenney.—Benediction, by Dr. Black.

GRADUATES.—This is a new tale from the French of Soe, which has been received and is now for sale at Cook's. It is a sequel to the "Mysteries of Paris," one of the most interesting tales that has ever been published. Those who have read the "Mysteries" will derive great satisfaction from a perusal of "Geraldine."

AT IT AGAIN.—Alexander Campbell, of Virginia, and Rev. N. L. Rice, have commenced a debate at Lexington, Ky., on Baptism; Henry Clay Judge R. J. etson and Speer Smith acting as moderators and judges.

FOR THE POST.—Mess. Editors.—When we are considering who shall be our next Governor, there are many matters to be taken into view—the virtue and talents of the candidates, and their availability or popularity.

TO THE FIRST REQUISITE, these candidates have never lived in splendor, or in high wages drawn from the taxes of the people. One of them had no other home than a hovel, and he was not even allowed to enter it.

He has not yet learned the lesson of the following citizens. He never had a more than a humble abode, and he never had a more than a humble abode.

He never had a more than a humble abode, and he never had a more than a humble abode.

FOR SAFETY.

Travellers should select Boots provided with Evans's Safety Guards for preventing Explosion of Steam Boilers.

It would be well for the traveling community to bear in mind that their security depends entirely upon their use of boots that have been tested.

And that every individual making such selection is contributing towards a general introduction of an invention admitted by all men who understand the principles of the Steam Engine, to be a sure preventative against those dreadful disasters.

It is in the hundreds of explosions that have already taken place, their almost daily occurrence, and the thousands of lives that have been lost, a sufficient warning, and inducement to make inquiry for a Safety Guard Boot, and in every case to give it the preference.

They have not only an additional expense that your lives may be secured. Ought you not therefore to meet them with a corresponding degree of liberality, and by your preference show you respect their laudable endeavors to stop this awful sacrifice of human life.

They do not charge more than other boots; their accommodations in other respects are equal, and in many cases superior; and as there is one looking for safety in every day, why will you run any risk, when it is so completely in your own power to avoid those disasters.

All boots marked thus [*] in the List of Arrivals and Departures, in another part of this paper, are supplied with the Safety Guard.
