FOR PRESIDENT,

JAS. BUCHANAN:

Subject to the decision of

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

FOR GOVERNOR,

FRS. R. SHUNK:

Subject to the decision of

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Daily Morning Post.

PHILLIPS & SMITH, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

PITTSBURGH, MONDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1843.

THE SHUNK MEETING.—The meeting of the friends of FRANCIS R SHUNK, held at the Washington Hotel, on Friday evening, was one of the old fashioned gatherings of the democracy, in which the heart and soul of the audience were warmly committed in favor of the object that called them together. Many of the old, consistent democrats from the country, who have, since the days of Jefferson, pursued the plain, clear, honest course of democracy, and who were foremost among the hosts who rallied to the support of Jackson, were present and joined enthusiastically in the proceedings. The meeting was ably addressed by Messrs GAZZAM, VAN AMRINGE, BLACK, LAYNG, HAMILTON, KERR, and MAGRAW, and their remarks in favor of the nomination of FRANCIS R SHUNK were warmly responded to by the vast assemblage.

This is the second indication that has been given in Allegheny county on the Gubernatorial question within a short time, and from the "thunder of the people" on both occasions, we think no person can doubt now but SHUNK IS THE MAN. At their festivals and public meetings the people of Allegheny have proclaimed their preference for FRANCIS R SHUNK, and we believe the resolution pledging the county for one thousand majority, if he should be the candidate, will be made good next October.

In accordance with the wishes of the forty-six hundred democrats of the county, we this day place his name at the head of our columns, and will exert whatever influence we may have to secure him an honorable nomination. Public opinion everywhere indicates him to be the choice of the people, and as exponents of the sentiments of the democracy we deem it our duty to lend our aid in proclaiming the truest and well ascertained preference of the party.

We can assure our readers, that by news received from other portions of the State, there is not the slightest doubt of Mr SHUNK's nomination if the real voice of the people is permitted to be heard, and we are certain that if the welfare of the party is properly considered he will be the democratic candidate in 1844.

REGULATING THE CURRENCY.—Our exchange papers says; that the whigs are getting to be as shy of these words as they are of hard cider: but we must nevertheless occasionally disturb their nerves, by reminding them of their old sayings. Every body knows that through all the bank war, the cry was, that the exchanges never could be regulated without a national money despot; but the democrats on the other hand contended that the free laws of trade, like the free laws of Republic, were better for the exchanges and every thing else, than any money king. This was the great question that divided us—the money monarchists on the one side, the unbought democracy on the other. The question is now settled; the exchanges never were so staple, and so uniformly good, during the reign of the United States Bank, as they have been since.—We clip the following as the present specie rates, from the Journal of Commerce. It will be seen, that on the principal points of the South, New Orleans and Mobile, instead of there being a discount as formerly, there is now a premium of at least one per cent in our favor. That is, a northern manufacturer or trader, who has sold his goods in those markets, and has $1000 lying there at the avails, can not only receive the specie for it in New York without discount, but will get $1010 for the amount. This never happened while the United States Bank was in existence. On all other points, it will also be seen the rates are altogether better than they used to be under the United States Bank. We ask the attention of business men, whether whigs or democrats, to these figures. It has turned out in this, as on every other great question that has ever divided the public mind, the democrats in the end came out right; and the federalists, instead of owning it, run off to something else—to be proved wrong there also, when tested by experience.

EXTRAORDINARY FEAT.—The Limerick Reporter says that a man named M'Mullen, famed for many surprising acts of pedestrianism, undertook to walk forty miles in nine hours. The place marked out was from the head of the Military walk to near Ballinacurra pike, half a mile. What makes this feat more extraordinary is, that twenty of the forty miles were performed backward. He began at twenty minutes past nine, and concluded at about half-past five, thus accomplishing his task in about eight hours and ten minutes, being fifty less than the time specified. At the conclusion he was loudly cheered. A collection was made during the day, and it is understood the officers of the garrison subscribed a liberal sum. M'Mullen is an Irishman. Thousands of persons congregated during the day to witness this singular feat of pedestrianism.

WESTERN WATERS.—We are pleased to learn from our Cincinnati papers, that the citizens of the west are early moving in relation to the improvement of the western Rivers. A meeting has been held in Cincinnati, at which it was resolved to memorialize Congress on the subject. Thirteen states of this Union are directly interested in the navigation of these waters, and if they send forth their united appeal, it cannot be disregarded. Speaking of this movement a Cincinnati paper says:—

"We hope our sister cities on the Lake and along the Western Rivers, everywhere, will make a similar movement and that the leading press of the West, especially that portion of it at the seats of government of the various States, will urge our Legislatures to act promptly on the subject.

It is time that we should present a bold front, and take a decided stand, as regards these great interests. We have the power if we are united. Let that union be manifested this winter, and we shall have more attention paid to our home affairs both by our own representatives, and the representatives of the Union."

COUNTERFEITS.—A large number of altered notes, purporting to be genuine twenty dollar notes of the Doylestown Bank, have been put in circulation in Philadelphia. They have been altered from the two dollar bills of the Tenth Ward Bank, New York. Two men have been committed to prison for passing them.

Shunk Meeting.

Pursuant to the above call, a very large and respectable meeting of the Democracy of Allegheny county was held at the Washington Hotel.

Mr. JOHN BROWN, of Pine township, was called to the chair, and JAMES CUNNINGHAM,

Maj. JONATHAN LARGE,
JOHN BIRMINGHAM,
JOHN ANDERSON,
ANTHONY BEELEN,
JAMES MCALEER,
DAVID MILLER,
MICHAEL SNEE,
JACOB YOEGTLEY and
R. A. CAMPBELL, were appointed Vice Presidents, and Thomas Blackmore, Thomas Phillips, M Kane, Jr., Thomas Donnelly, and Thomas Hamilton, were appointed Secretaries.

On motion of H. S. MAGRAW, a committee of twenty was appointed to draft Resolutions for the action of this meeting. The chair appointed the following gentlemen:—H. S. Magraw, A. Bausman, John W. Blair, Coles Townsend, James Hamill, John Irwin, Samuel Snowden, R. H. Patterson, Thos. Farley, Fra Quinette, J. L. Armstrong, E. Heidelbergh, H. H. Peterson, L. Henriet, Samuel Jones, Hugh Sweeny, Col. Wm. Meredith, G. W. Layng, H. Demmler, Wm. Lehmer. The committee, through their chairman, made the following report, which, after being read, was unanimously agreed to:—

Resolved, That the people of Allegheny county do hereby most cordially present to the state convention to be held on the 4th of March next, Francis R. Shunk as their choice as candidate for Governor, and, if he receive the nomination, do pledge themselves to give him a most cheerful, hearty and enthusiastic support:

Because, we believe that there is no man in the state, who has been named as a candidate for the office, who is so well qualified to perform its duties—

Because, we believe that there is no man in the state of purer virtue, more honorable principles, more unblemished reputation, and more amiable character, whether we consider his public or his private life—

Because, we have confidence in the sterling purity of his democratic principles, well tried and proved in the fiercest fires of political strife—

Because, we have confidence that his democracy does not depend on the temporary ascendancy of political parties, or the temporary popularity of new and changing opinions, nor arise from accidental attachment to a particular party; but flows from the kindest feelings of humanity, nourished and cultivated in him from his earliest infancy—

Because, we have confidence that his democracy is too firm and too lofty to be undermined or overtopped by the insidious encroachments or arrogant assumptions of federal heresies, or aristocratic monopolies—

Because, we believe that his election would be a 'free will offering" of an enthusiastic people to high but humble and unpretending worth, unattended by any of the ostentatious trappings of wealth and power—

Because, we owe him, as a people, a debt of gratitude for his heroic stand which he took in the front rank of the democratic host in the fearful strife of 1838; when he nobly dared, in the face of swords, and muskets, and cannons, and all the panoply of political and military power, to stand forward in favor of liberty and the constitution, and to assist in their defence when assailed in their most vital parts—

Because, we believe that a large majority of the people, who attend to politics only so far as is necessary for the public good, prefer Francis R Shunk to any other man that can be named, and point to him as one of themselves, and one to whose honesty, firmness, intelligence and care they can cheerfully and confidently commit the public interests—

Because, we believe the west has claims upon the rest of the state which should not be resisted when we ask to have, at least for once, a western democratic governor, and when we choose as our candidate one born and bred in an eastern county, but who, in his short residence among us, has been cordially received "as one brought up with us"—has secured, by his intelligence and virtue, our utmost confidence, and by his kindness of heart has attached us to him by bonds of affection which cannot easily be severed.

Because, we believe his name is dear to the democracy of Pennsylvania, and that he has never done anything that has rendered him obnoxious to any portion of the party—

Because, in the approaching highly important contest of 1844, we expect to struggle against the force of the most popular man of the opposition for President and the most popular man for Governor, and we must not risk our success on a doubtful candidate, or one who can receive but a lukewarm support from any portion of the party—we must select our strongest man, and with Francis R. Shunk, as the people's candidate, we are sure we can beat all the hosts of the opposition, no matter how fortified, arrayed or combined.—

Because, we believe with Francis R. Shunk as our candidate, we can recall to our ranks the old democrats who have of late years acted with the opposition—crush the power of federalism in Allegheny county—re-establish the ascendancy of correct principles, and secure a permanent democratic majority.

Resolved, That we give to Francis R. Shunk the pledge of all our might in his support, and to our friends in the state the sure promise of a thousand majority in old Allegheny.

In the course of the evening WILSON M'CANDLESS, Esq., was loudly called for. A gentleman present stated that Mr. M'C. was very much indisposed, and read the following letter from him apologizing for his absence which was triumphantly applauded.

December 1st, 1843.

TO THE SHUNK MEETING:

Fellow Democrats:—A severe cold prevents me from being present at the Shunk meeting this evening, called to promote the nomination of that estimable and incorruptible Democrat, Francis R. Shunk, to the gubernatorial chair of Pennsylvania.

I wish I could be with you—you do not know what a delight it would be to me. But I cannot speak above a whisper, and I hope there will be no whispering there, for "when the people thunder 'Old Shunk's' the man."

Your fellow citizen,
WILSON M'CANDLESS.

On motion, the following gentleman were appointed to write an address in the German language:

B. Louth, A. Hartz, F. Yost, Wm. Hoeveler, Conrad Mussler, L Reinhard, Joseph Herman, F. G Schenk, Dr. Forster, C. Beuirman, Carl Melchier, L. Moller, E. Heidelberg

On motion of Mr. ISAAC CRUSE, the following resolution was adopted.

Resolved, that the proceedings and Resolutions of this meeting be published in all the Democratic papers in Allegheny County, and the Democratic papers at Harrisburg, and all the Democratic papers in the State, friendly to FRANCIS R. SHUNK.

The meeting was addressed by Dr. Gazzam and Mr. Van Amringe; the latter of whom spoke at great length, and very much to the purpose. He traced the history, personal and political, of Francis R. Shunk from his early life, and gave many happy illustrations of his personal integrity, his political consistency, and his unsullied patriotism.

Samuel W. Black, Esq., was then loudly called upon, and he came forward and addressed the meeting in his usual spirited and happy manner. His remarks were received with frequent bursts of applause.

G. W. Layng, Esq., was then called on, and addressed the meeting at considerable length and with much feeling.

Samuel Jones offered the following:

Resolved, That a committee of seventeen be appointed, who shall act as a Shunk Committee of Correspondence, for the purpose of furthering the views of this meeting, and producing a concert of action among our democratic fellow-citizens in other counties of the state; and that the said committee prepare an address to the People of Pennsylvania.

The following gentlemen were appointed:—S. Jones, John Anderson, Wm. Coleman, Wilson McCandless, S. W. Black, T. Donnelly, H. H. Van Amringe, Jon. Large, Jas. Cunningham, D. Miller, C. McKibben, M. Kane, Jr., John Birmingham, H. S. Magraw, G. R. Riddle, Coles Townsend.

After giving three cheers for "OLD SHUNK," which made the building shake, the meeting adjourned.

FOR THE POST.

THE PEOPLE'S SONG.

Toast by James Cunningham.—The next Governor.—When politicians talk, somebody else is named, but when the people thunder, old Shunk's the man.—Pittsburgh Celebration.

Tune, "Yankee Doodle"

When politicians talk about,
Who next the State shall rule, sirs?
They're sure to wink and blink and name
One of their crafty school, sirs:
But when the people—as is right,
The question closely scan, sirs,
In thunder tones you hear them shout,
"Old SHUNK's the very man, sirs."

We have a forty million debt,
Extravagance incurr'd, sirs,
And mangre e'en our plighted faith,
The payment is defer'd sirs;
The People think—to save the State—
Economy's the plan, sirs,
And say, to carry out their views,
"Old SHUNK's the very man, sirs!"

The taxes levied, we will pay,
To save us from disgrace, sirs,
But then we want one of ourselves,
To fill the highest place, sirs;
Let politicians name their choice,
We know their very plan, sirs,
To check the plundering now abroad,
"Old SHUNK's the very man, sirs!"

The farmers who attend the plough,
And toil by day and night, sirs,
By tricks of politicians find
Their purses getting light, sirs
Mechanics, too, are asking who,
Extravagance will ban, sirs,
And the echo answers from the hills,
"Old SHUNK's the very man, sirs!"

Let rule and ruin, bankers scheme,
Withrags to cheat us all, sirs,
We'll have a clause to make them pay,
When honest men shall call, sirs:—
We think we know who'll lend his aid,
To consummate this plan, sirs,
The "Smoke Town" boys indeed, have said,
"Old SHUNK's the very man, sirs!"

ANOTHER PROBABLE DEMAND UPON THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

Under date of the 16th Nov. the Key West correspondent of the New York Courier says:—"At the November term of the Superior Court for the Southern District of Florida, eight negroes were indicted for murder and robbery. They are the same who fled from St. Augustine some time past with a sail boat. They went to Biscane, Cape Florida, where they remained some time, during which they entered the house of one Geeren, and in the presence of two children, the one 10 and the other 6 years old, took whatever they found and wanted and then went away. Mr. Geeren, on his return, learning what had transpired, took his gun and pursued, and soon after, the children heard the reports of guns. Mr. Geeren was afterwards found dead, having been shot. But the negroes have arrived safely at Nassau. It is the intention of the authorities here to have them demanded of the British Government as fugitives from justice. The above detailed facts, I believe are the substance of what was disclosed before the Grand Jury."
