DAILY POST PRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 5, 1044.

WEITERSITT LIEGTURES -Judge SHALER'S Lecure at the University, will be of more than ordinary Interest. The Oregon is a question that is attracting much public attention at present, and the more it is discussed the more interesting will it become to every American citizen. Judge SHALER has beetowed much w tention on the subject, and has made himself intimately acquainted with the whole question in dispute between the United States and Great Britain, regard-this evening may rost assured that they will be much enlightened on a subject which is of great importance so our country, but of which the public generally possees a very limited knowled;o.

We are gratified to have a further corroboration again congratulate Mr Borland on the happy reforma- Safety guard Boat, and in every case to give it the tion that has taken place in his political options.

FOR THE POST. MOSES BORLAND, ESQ. Mr Phillips: Since you noticed, a few days ago, the laudable endeavors to stop this awful sacrince of hu-rally independent conduct of Mr Borland, in cutting man life. They do not charge more than other boats; himself lobse from the waning fortunes of Henry Clay, and soliciting a nomination on the democratic Council in many cases superior; and as there is one leaving ticket, thus declaring to the world his ardent and patriotic devotion to correct principles, several of his for-it is so completely in your ownpower to avoid these dis-mer political friends have become his persecutors as well as calumniators.
