FOR GOVERNOR FRS. R. SHUNK:

Subject to the decision of THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION

The Daily Morning Post

THOMAS PHILLIPS, EDITOR.

PITTSBURGH, THURSDAY, JANUARY 18. MR. BRACKESRIDGE'S PROPOSITION. - We publish this morning the scheme, brought forward by our able and efficient representative, to meet the interest on the state debt and preserve the reputation of the commonwealth. We shall have something to say on this mattex in a day or two, and must content ourselves for the present by remarking that it appears to be the only practicable plan that has yet been submitted; and as our credit, we trust that the proposition will be sustain-

We are requested to state, in reply to the comments of the Aurora on Dr E. D. Gazzam's political preferences, that the editors of that paper have misapprehended the sentiments expressed by Dr G. at the late Van Buren meeting, and misunderstood the motives which induced him to attend the Democratic celebration of the 8th of January. Dr Gazzam has always been free in the expression of his political principles, and if he had any choice among the present candidates for the democratic nomination for the Presidency he would express his preference freely and atonce. Dr.G. does not nor did not presume to recommend any particular course to the Buchanan Ben of Pennsylvania, but spoke for himself only; and he now reiterates what before Mr Buchanan's withdrawal he had freand patriotism of the Democratic party.

Col. King, or Alabama. - We have seen this genfice of Vice President. We know of no democrat in Lucknot came in possession of this noted trunk! the country who would be likely to receive a warmer or more harmonious support than Mr. Kins. Lute Instructress in the Convents of Nazareth and Loretto, and for the last twelve years patronized by the elite of the Cities of Cincinnati, Louisville, Lexington, Nashville, &c., Begs leave most respectfully to offer to the citizens of Pittsburgh and vicinity, her services as instructress in the beautiful accomplishments of Dancing, Waltzing, &c.

Her long experience, and the elevated position that has ever been acceded to her, are, she flatters herself, a sufficient guarantee that every attention will be paid to the correct deportment and moral conduct of the cholars: Madame B.'s system being to impart to her pupils as well an easy carringe in the domestic circle, as a graceful deportment in the Assembly Room.

The following fancy Dances will be taught:—Ladies.

es, and the latest and most fashionable Cotillions. The hours of tuition will be during two days of the week for young misses and masters, and an Evening Class for gentlemen who may desire to profit by the in-struction of Madame B., and who will be pleased to ea ter their names upon her subscription list. TERMs.—For a session of 29 Lessons, $10. Cotillion Parties will be given during the session .-Due notice will be given of the time and place of commencement, and in the interim Mac. Blaique would esteem it a favor if parents and guardians would notify her of the number of scholars they propose entering. Madame B. may be found at the Exchange. Madame B. can furnish references to the most respectable families in the South and West, and also to Wilson McCandless, Esq. of this city.
