FOR GOVERNOR FRS. R. SHUNK: Subject to the decision of THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

THOMAS PHILLIPS, EDITOR.

PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1844. Hours or Labor. - A letter from Harrisburgh informs us that on the 15th, Mr. BRACKENRIDGE read in hisplace, a Bill entitled: "An Act to prevent overand the better to promote their health and morals."-We do not know the character of the Bill in detail, but ed by all who condemnthe present slavish system that is pursued in our Factories. Many efforts have been made to reform the evils of the Factory System, but from various causes, no relegislative investigations. This, we believe, is owing coined four instead of three millions a year. to the fact that among all those who advocated a reform there were none who had a practical knowledge of the friends of the Factory children, to know that the matter is now in the hands of one who is theroughly ac_ quainted with all its evils, and who has had the best means of acquiring the necessary information to effect known, was, a few years since, extensively engaged in manufacturing, and he is therefore practically acquain-

Wenre pleased that he has taken the matter in hand, for we feel assured that he will not give it up until some measures are adopted that will humanize the factory system, and improve the condition of the poor children who are now forced to toil from before daylight until long after dark, for what will barely afford them the means of living.

We would here take occasion to commend the zealous manner in which all our members attend to their duty at Harrisburgh. Thus far, Messrs. BRACKEN-RIDGE, GIBSON, STURGEON and ANDEREGG, have taken a leading part in the House, and evinced a warm desire to serve, not only the interests of their constitnents, but the welfare of the whole community.
