THOSE MEDALS.—Some three or four weeks since to be a sure preventative against those dreadful disasters. You have cortainly, in the hundreds of explosions that have already pany, and the latter to the best marksman in either of pany, and the latter to the best marksman in either of thousands of lives that have already been lost, a sufficient warning, and inducement to make inquiry for a fruit trees, grape vines, &c, have been lately planted the military companies of our city. Judges were appointed to decide the contest, which, we understood, was to have taken place without any preparation on the part of any of the companies; by which means it would to make in the part of any of the companies; by which means it would be part of any of the companies; by which means it woul be seen, what company had paid most attention to discipline. The medals remain at the store of Mi J. B. man life. They do not charge more than other boats; their accommodations in other respects are equal, and the contest is to take place. The delay in this matin many cases superior; and as there is one leaving think his wishes should have been more promptly at-
