Sir. I have carefully examined the documents, now before a committee of the House of Representatives. which, as a member of that-committee, you were so kind as to allow me to read, relative to a settlement between the Commonwealth Bank of Boston, a Government deposite bank, that failed in the early part of 1838, and the Treasury of the United States, by which certain lands that the Bank received from a company called the Warren Association were appraised to the United States, in part payment of the debt due from

GEORGE ROTHERY,

In a "fraud" upon the government in procuring some land of the Warren Association to be appraised to the government much above its fair value, and that I was concerned in a "fraud" upon the government in procuring some land of the Warren Association to be appraised to the government much above its fair value, and "hat I was concerned in a "fraud" upon the government in procuring some land of the Warren Association to be appraised to the government much above its fair value, and "hat I designed to defend my creditors about that time by a collusive transfer of my property. These, I believe, are lithe charges made against me, and I must admit are very serious and grave charges. "I medical materials are very serious and grave charges." I medical materials are very serious and grave charges. are very serious and grave charges. 'I publicly refu-ted them some six years ago, and I believe effectually silenced, for the time, if I did not put to shame, the niscreants who propogated them. I am at a loss to know why an attempt, except the spring from the foulest melevolence, is, or ever was made, to hold me responsible for the failure of the Commonwealth Bank. I never was a Director of the Bank, nor a stockholder, I believe, till some half dozen years after the Bank went into operation. The stock I then bought, I held, and the value I lost at the time the Bank failed. I was not then a debtor to the Bank, nor to any one else. I was endorser, or surety, to the amount of some seventy thousand dolfars, for a near relative, who owed this sum to the Bank at the time of tis insolvency. Part of this money had been hired of the Bank during the suspension of specin phylhems, when the corrency was nearly ten per cent below par. Many of the debtors of the Bank availed themselves of a right which all possessed at that time, and paid their liabilities to the Bank in its own bills, which were at from 30 to 50 per cent discoult. But not so did my relative, proverbial for his highsense of mercantile homrelative, proverbiat for his mighteness of mercantile hon-or, whose paper I had endorsed. His hotes were paid in specie funds, at an extra cost, over the paper of the Commonwealth Bank, of twenty-five to thirty thou-sand dollars, to place 'himself and friends beyond the reach of malevolent imputations; and it has so placed
