

GOVERNOR
H. R. SHUNK

The Daily Morning Post
THOMAS PHILLIPS, EDITOR.

PITTSBURGH, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2.

Under the head of "Political Economy" the columns of the Gazette of yesterday were filled with a long and elaborate article on the subject of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of this State. The article was written by one of our ablest and most experienced publicists, and was published in the Gazette of yesterday. It was a most interesting and valuable contribution to the public mind, and was read with great interest and attention by all who were conversant with the subject. The article was a most able and masterly exposition of the principles of political economy, and was a most valuable contribution to the public mind.
