ARTICLE FIFTH.

"The jars of the earth which were felt at Trento on Sunday merning last were also experienced at Morristown. A friend from that place mentions to us that the people generally felt several distinct shakes be-tween 2 and 7 o'clock, two-of which jarred some of the dwelling bouses so much as to wake up the fami lies. The doors and windows rattled distinctly.— Our informant jumped up at the first, and looked at his watch found it was 2 o'clock. Soon after day break a crack of some hundred yards in length was hotel, the opening being about a fourth of an inch in with. According to the State Gazette, similar influences were noticed at Trenton about I o'clock the same norning. Among the conjectures as to the se, to sky nothing of earthquakes, it was ascribed at Morristown to the action of frest.'

SLAVERY IN OREGON. A Methodist Missionary in our Far-Western terriary, in a communication, published we think, in the western Christain Advosate, says that slavery in that country has existed from time immemorial. The stronger tribes make war with the weaker, take prison and enslave them. And, 'many of the settlers, both French and American, buy and sell slaves. By these most of the work of the farmer is done." Our Government should be called upon to interfere instantly for the suppression of this svil,
