MEETING OF THE ANTIMASONIC COMMITTEE. --- The meeting of the antimasonic Committee on Wednesday, was not a very favorable indication for the success of the schemes and plans of the Clay mon in Allegheny county. It was shown that although they may purchase up such pitiful mercenaries as the Gazette, they cannot include in such bargains either the shrewd old leaders of the party, or the honest rank and file of the antimasums. The skill, cunning and foresight of such politicians as N. B. Craig, are too well known to tho people of this county. It was his efforts and that of a few others that raised antimasonry into a powerful and at length a triumphant party. While they led, federalism was always successful; but the whig portion of "the party, thought they had followed long enoughthey had suffered a good many indignities from the antics. and they were determined to become the leaders, and they have succeeded. To add to the weakness of the federal party the editorial control of the Gazette pasred into the hands of an unprincipled mason, who for purposes no doubt as honorable as those which governed his late bargain and sale with the Claymen, re-
