PITTSBURGH, PA. SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 10: 1844. PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTER FOR FEBRUARY. William Eichbeum—T. J. Bigham—John W. Bleis WM WILKINS. -- We see our representative sugges ted in some of the papers as a suitable person for Secretary of the Navy.

Let it be recollected that the renegade Rives adduces as an argument why Clay should receive the support of the South, that his opinions on the subject of a Tariff coincide better with Southern sentiments than those of Mr Van Buren

TRUE.—The Augusta Age says: Mr Rives has been acting against the democratic party, for more than six years. In 1840, he was one of the loudest and most reckless of the federal orators. And yet his letter is soized apon ass "new" and ' unexpected" demonstration against Mr Van Buren! Mr Webster's forthcoming letter will probably be bailed in the same way The federal party are growing rich as some misers do: by turning over their old coppers and counting them anew every morning.

THE NY TRIBURE-a "Protection" Journa boasts of the revenue collected at New York in January from the payment of duties, and sulogises the Tariff as the cause of it. Has it forgotton that all the recent emberrassments of this country arose from such excessive impo. is ? Wait till the end of the year and see how the balance of trade stands, or the Tribune may find itself crowing over the chief cause of another ALPS, national insolvency.

EFFECTS OF THE HIGH TARIFF. -- In New York, a ADELAIDE, man named Michael McLaughlin was taken into custody on Saturday night, charged with aiding and abetting in the landing of casted and abetting in the landing are also are

"Mr Ryan brings highly encouraging accounts re-lative to the canal, rendering it nearly certain that the work will be resumed in a very few months. He will immediately proceed to Bosten, and from there to Europe, for the purpose of finally adjusting the negotiations in regard to the canal, and to expedite business. He will carry out with him the report of Gov. Davis as also full maps of the northern partion of the State, showing the situation of the canal, the lands, water-power, &c., enabling the bond-holders at a glance to see the nature and extent of the security offered for the WOMAN Perhaps a more just or beautiful compliment wanever paid to woman than the following from Judge it said, that is the path of daty, no sacrifice is with them too high or too dear. Nothing is with them impossible but to shrink from what love, honor, and innocence require. The voice of pleasure and of pow-er may have passed by unheeded, but the voice of af-fliction never. The chamber of the sick, the pillow of the dying, the vigils of the dead, the altars never missed the sympathies of woman. Timid though she be, and so delicate that the winds of heaven may not too roughly visit her, on such occasions she looses all which knows not and fears not consequences. Then she displays the undanuted spirit which neither courts difficul ies not evades them—that resignation which neither murmure ner regrets—and that patience in uffering which seems victorious over death itself. The young Democrats of Allegheny city friendto the sominee of the Democratic party are particu larly requested to meet at the house of Capt. Cooper, at 7 o'clock P M, February 13th, instant, for the purpose of forming an association to be called the Keystone Association, of Allegheny city.
