The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 15, 1844.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR FEBRUARY.

Mark Blackburn.—T. J. Bigham.—John W. Blair.

OVERSIGHT.—"The Phalanx, No. V." is for sale at this office. To the friends of Social Reform it is a rich number.

☞ There is an unusual dearth of news at the present time. The papers are filled with "words words, words," but nothing more important than a murder or a suicide are to be found in them—and they have become so common of late that they are looked upon as "nothing new." In Pittsburgh we don't hear even a chicken fight to disturb the dullness of the city.

☞ Our neighbors of Allegheny are filling their ice houses in a very economical manner. Instead of hauling it to the city, as is usual, they go up the river a few miles, and when they come to a very large and thick cake, they insert a steering oar at one end, and with a pole it to the ice houses on the bank of the river, as our Pioneers were wont to do a keel boat. This is certainly an economical method, but is attended with great danger and may result fatally to some of its promoters.

NOTICE.—Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., and Dr Elder will address the Allegheny Anti Slavery Society, at 7 o'clock this evening, (Thursday) the 15th, in the Temperance Ark, Allegheny city.

☞ NOTICE.—The members of the different Lodges of the I. O. of O. F., of Pittsburgh and vicinity are respectfully solicited to attend a general meeting to be held at their Hall on Friday evening, the 16th inst., at 7 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of establishing an Odd-Fellow Library.

☞ The German Democratic Central Committee of Correspondence for Allegheny county will meet on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the house of D. Reisen.

JOS HERMAN, Pres't.

To the Public.

THE false and infamous imputations intended to be cast upon me, by a card that appeared in the Morning Post of the 3th inst., requires a statement from me to explain the motives of the persons engaged in its persecution.

The charge that I sell not pay the prices for work I use, and known to be so by those who make it. It is old and well to every body in and out of the trade, that the value of labor depends, to a great extent, on the material worked upon. Good workmen on good cloth receive and receive corresponding wages; but where inferior workmen are employed on cheap cloths, that are of little or no profit, it is unreasonable and absurd to expect employers to pay exorbitant prices for making cheap articles on which they realize a very trifling profit. The poor men employed on this kind of work, and the special objects of these persons, who, aided by the business of the "Three Big Doors." If they did get work at other shops for the men they are now trying to coax or coerce out of my employ, their conduct might not appear so censurable; but this they can or will not do. They care not if their victims should starve—all they care for is to embarrass me in getting goods manufactured, after that they are regardless of the wrong they inflict on the poor people they force from their measures.

As to the wages, I can fearlessly assert that the prices paid by me are better and more advantageous to operatives than those of any other establishment in the city. Instead of forcing those who work for me to receive orders on which they must suffer reduction, I pay for all labor in cash, and the advantages of such payments are too well known to workmen to require explanation. Those who work for me have no complaints to make; they know that I give them employment on better terms than they can get at any other shop, and they would willingly continue, but for the efforts of squads of idle persons who follow them on the streets and make them return the work from which they expected to realize the means of support for themselves and families.

If the persons who are engaged in this disreputable conspiracy think that they can injure me in my business by the course they are pursuing they are very much mistaken. Large as my stock of goods is, I can have it all manufactured by good workmen who are too independent to become the tools of envious dealers in "old clothes," who are unable to compete with the "Three Big Doors," and to preserve their independence they think it is better for them to work for those who can give them good wages and prompt pay, ta cash. I am sorry to see a few who are trying to force poor men to join their employment with the hope that by so doing they can get from me a establishment that has given more work to journeymen, and at better prices, than all the slop shops that are now trying to annoy it.

In closing this card, it may be proper to inform my friends and the public at large, that every article in the clothing line is on hand and can be made to order at the shortest notice and in the most fashionable style at the "Three Big Doors." The great variety and excellence of my stock of cloths will enable me to please all mates. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves.

JOHN M'CLOSKEY,
Three Big Doors, Liberty street.

TO THE JOURNEYMEN TAILORS OF THE UNITED STATES.

HAVING observed, in some of the newspapers of this city, an advertisement, for 200 Journeymen Tailors, in this city, where they would get constant employment, and receive cash in payment.

The Society have thought it proper (having the welfare of the trade at heart) to expose this base movement, by stating through the public journals that the Journeymen of this city, are at present on a strike against an attempt being made by this and other individuals to reduce their wages; and all Journeymen are hereby cautioned against coming to this city with the expectation of getting employment from this LOVER OF MAMMON, who has thus thrown out such an inducement for them to come to this place, as he has expressed his determination NOT TO PAY the Bill.

D. WEARTS, President.

☞ All boats marked thus [*] are provided with Evans' Safety Guard, to prevent the Explosion of steam Boilers.

FOR SAFETY,

Travellers should select Boats provided with Evan's Safety Guards for preventing Explosion of Steam Boilers

IT would be well for the traveling community to bear in mind that their security depends entirely upon their own encouragement of boats that have or may be at the expense of procuring the above apparatus. And that every individual making such selections is contributing towards a general introduction of an invention admitted by all men who understand the principles of the Steam Engine, to be a sure preventative against those dreadful disasters.

You have certainly, in the hundreds of explosions that have already taken place, their almost daily occurrence, and the thousands of lives that have already been lost, a sufficient warning, and inducement to make inquiry for a Safety guard Boat, and in every case to give it the preference. They have went to an additional expense that your lives may be secure. Ought you not therefore to meet them with a corresponding degree of liberality, and by your preference show that you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this awful sacrifice of human life. They do not charge more than other boats; their accommodations in other respects are equal, and in many cases superior; and as there is one leaving Pittsburgh every day, why will you run any risk, when it is so completely in your own power to avoid those disasters.

All boats marked thus [*] in the List of Arrivals and Departures, in another part of this paper, are supplied with the Safety Guard.
