WILLIAM WILKINS. - We have not yet received announcement of the nomination of Judge Wilkin Secretary of War, but there appears to be no do but he will have the post tendered him, and he will counter no opposition in the Senate. An American vessel has been seized at Sa ne and with her cargo remained for a adjudication, an attempt to evade the revenue laws by carryin cargo of 300 bales Texas cotton to New Orlea without having cleared at the Custom House. Between the years 1842 and 1843, 273 v sels entered and 288 cleared at the different ports Texas—of these the greater number belonged to Te ians, and the next greatest to the United States. The President of Texas is said to be secretly, if not open in favor of the annexation of Texas. An Indian town called Doakville, in the Choc taw nation, contains a church, two taverns, and tailor saddlers, carpenters, wheelrights, and blacksmith shops, &c., ranging in order upon streets, as in othe towns. The stores, &c., are principally carried on by natives, who are said to be civil, orderly, and sober. Freights to Philadelphia and Baltimore. MERCHANTS & MANUFACTURERS' LINE FOR transporting Goods.
