THE attention of those who have been somewhsceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being anknown in this Section of the State, is respectfully di rected to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and i. known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility. To the Agent, Mr. J. KIRBY. I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a Cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness and agrees well with my diet,—and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can since sely recommend it to all others similarly afflicred. J. In one of Mr Gliddon's recent lectures on the Present rumids of Egypt, speaking of the view from the great Memphite pyramid, he remarks that, "standing upon the sumit, now a platform of about 33 feet quare, the spectator is raised above the level of the ow Nile about 612 feet; or 590 feet over the adjacent alluvial country, and about twice and a half times higher than Bunker Hill. To the westward, the eye tretches over the Lybian Desert, which is here an undulating sable land of lime-stone rock, on the surface of which pebbles and gravel of light brown hue, as far as the eye can reach, betoken the dreary waste.nbroken by vegetation, the arid tract extends from the Pyramids across the Sahara to the distant Atlanthe edge of the Desert, and on the right with verdant fields, lofty sycamores, groves of palms, villages and distant towns, boats, eattle, and all the edjucts of agiculture, all gathered in charming contrast with the Desert on the other. On the east, on the plain below, beyond the edge of the Sandy Desert intervening between the Hill of the Pyramid and the Alluvial, a readth of about a thousand yards, the eye sweeps over a cultivated plain intersected by canals and broken by illages; to the sacred Nile, and across the river at the out of the Brown Mountain of Mokaman, er Eastern Chain of Hills, rises Cairo, 'the Victorious,' the 'Mother of the world, with her citadel, mosques, minar-ets, palaces, and gardens; and the view of the 'guarded city,' as it is termed by the Arabs, at ten m rom the Pyramids, is one of the most picturesque and romantic prospects in the world. On the South close at hand, are two other large Pyramids of Gheizeh and along the edge of the desert successively rise the Pyramids of Abooseah, Saccara, and Dashour—thirtyone Pyramide in sight, on a line of twenty miles. A little to the left but hid from the view, by a dense for est of Palm Trees, lie the ruins of ancient Memphis, me of whose monarchs and once teeming population 2000 years ago, still slept in the vast Nec ecration and decay, lie the Sepulchres of thuse whose epock reaches beyond Abraham in Antiquity.—N. MARYLAND.-It behooves every State as it does ery individual, in these days of reform to ask, How much do we one in the world, and what means have we of paying our debts? Maryland has set berself to work in right earnest, to ascertain her real condition. It appears that the annual debt, exclusive of unproductive capital, is $11,387,984,98c.—amount of unproductive capital and credits, and sinking fund, $6.160,075—which deducted from the above, will leave $5,227,200.89c. THE LAST OF THE STUARTS. This most wonderful character still lives at Tweedmouth. A Scotch paper says: he will complete his 115th year on Christmas 1843. His father, General John Strart, was cousin of Prince Charles the Pro-tender. His grandmother was the lady of Airlis, will known in old Scotch song—James Stuart saw those memorable battles during the Rebellion of 1745 Pros-ton-pans and Culleden, and has apoken to and had ine with the Protector.

He served on the side of the rayalists in the Amer. in war, and was at the battle of Quebec, where Gen. Coughs! Colds!! Consumption !!! Wolfe lost his life in the moment of victory. Ha ser-persons can bear testimony to his amazing strength, from which circumstance he got the bye-name of Jonestick, 64 cents; five sticks for 25 cents; and at wholesale by Wn. Thorn, Druggist, 53, Marker street, where a my Straugth. Among other feats he could carry a 24 pounder cannon, and his been known to lift a cart load of hay weighing a ton and a half, upon his back. Many a time he has taken up a jeckase, and walked through the tell bar, carrying it on his shoulders. It will be long before we can look spon his like again, to
