He Waily Morning Post. PITTSBURGH, PA.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 8, 1844. NEW WORKS AT COOK'S .- The Jew, translat from the German, by C. Spindler, author of "Tim Jesuit." From what we have read of it, we would suppose this to be an interesting story, abounding with thrilling scenes.

The Sisters; or, England and France, by Henry Cockton. The popularity of "Stanley Thern" and "Valentine Vox," by the same author, is a sufficient guarantee that the Sisters is an interesting story. The Ladier Magazine for March, a bountiful

MILLER USED UP .- We have received a handhill weithen by "S. M.M'Connin, A Layman," reviewing the position taken by Father Miller, in this atrocious project for destroying the world, and the are leappy to discover that Miller is completely, headed by Mr M'Corkie, and that be cannot carry out the malicione project for destroying this "fine and happy country."

March number of this interesting Magazine, but have not had leisure to examine its contents with much attention. The first article is an able review of a date work on Mexico. by BRANTZ MAYER, Secretary of the U. S. Legation to that country in 1841 and 1842. In this article is shown that in many cases Mr Mayer has come to unwarrantable conclusions without having sufficiently examined the matters which he undertook to write about, and that much of what he considers information is pure romante. George Quigley, 5th street, is agent for the Magazine in this city.

Transportation Lines.

Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.

This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily, from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore. The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comsuffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three transhipments between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, are y the Portable Boats most effectually removed. To give undoubted security to owners and shippers, all goods and preduce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners. any additional charge to the owners.

Metchandise shipped by this line in any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh to any part of the west, free of commissions. H. Devine will receive produce consigued to him, pay steamboat freight and charges, and forward the ame to any of the eastern cities, and charge no commissions for storage, advancing or forwarding. Any communications or goods directed to the storage of the mmunications or goons arrected to aderaigned Agents will be promptly attended to.
