ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC VICTORY! DETROIT CITY ELECTION. The Free Press contains the following glorious elligence, which should cheer and animate our frier

"We have the gratification of amouncing t Democratic friends this morning, that we gained a great and brilliant victory at the charter election held in this city yesterday. We have corvied our entire general ticket—electing Gen John R Williams, our candidate for Mayor, by ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-FOUR MAJORITY, and Messrs O'Beirne, Har is and Young ur candidates for Justices, by a majority somewh less. The Whig majority in the city last spring fo Mayor was upwards of THREE HUNDRED! What makes this splendid victory of more than o inary political importance, is the fact that the whigs, anticipating a whig triumph and determined to gain it, had nominated the Editor and Proprietor of the Advertiser—the Clay whig organ at the Capitol, as their candidate for Mayor, so that they could announce the lection as a great Clay victory, and send it abroad as herald of what the whigs were to do in the city at the Presidential election: They consequently formed a most efficient organization, and made the most trem-was very eloquently and appropriately addressed by the Hon. Charles Shaler, after which the following resolutions were submitted by Wilson M'Candless, Esq., and adopted usanificusly:

Whereas. The convention which assembled at Harrisburgh, on the 4th instant, in accordance with the usuges of the Democratic party, nominated Martin Van Buren for President, Richard M Johnson for Vice President, and Henry A. Muhlenberg for Governor. Resolved. That we heartily concur in these nomiantions as the voice of the people, expressed through their delegated representatives, and to the nominees of the convention we will yield a cordial and unanimeus support.

Resolved. That the administration of Martin Van Buren has met with the universal admiration of the Democratic party, and wassignalized by a talent, discomment and natrictism which commends it to the admiration of a free, intelligent and magnanimous eople.

Resolved, That in the valiant and intrepid Johnes of men, the true lover of his country, the indomita-ble defender of that country's rights, and for whom she has reserved a place of high honor and prefernomination of Henry A. Muhlenberg, not because he is the choice of all of us, but because he is now the nominee of the regular republican convention he is now the embodiment of our principles, and be-cause we know him to be deeply embued with our po-litical sentiments, and a man of stern and inflexible integrity.

Resolved, That the special election of the 15th is pregnant with abiding interest to the democratic party, as the first expression of sentiment since the Gubernatorial nomination, and our defeat may be hailed as an omen of a similar catastrophe in future. Resolved, That Edward D Guzzam is entitled to our warmest support, not only for his arduous exertions in behalf of the party before and since the great campaign of 1840, but because we know him to be able and honest, and faithful to the interests of this great manufacturing and agricultaral community.

Mr M'Candless then addressed the meeting i usual happy style.

Dr Gazzam being then called for, responded to the call by coming forward and defining his position on many important topics, being interrupted frequently by euthusiastic cheers from the meeting.

Mr Sam. W. Black being very loudly called for, addressed the meeting in his usual masterly manne On motion of Wilson M'Candless, Esq., Resolved, That when this meeting adjourn ourns to meet at this house, on Thursday, at74 o'clock P.
