The Baily Morning Post.

PITTEBURGH, PA. FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH /15, 1844. OFERSEES OF .THE POOR .- To-day the election for Overseers of the Poor takes place. The office is an important one, and from the number of good men who are applicants, we doubt not a judicious selection will be made. JOHN L. BROWN .- The letter of Judge O'Neal has been the signal for a resumption of hostifities and the part of the "Age" and "Sua." They are again ut it. hot and heavy; the same old charges are brought forward against each other, and the same answers, that the public have long since become sick of. The Sun talks of its courage, and the "Ago" of its independence!

UF We call attention to the advertisement of Mesars. SEMPLE & BARKER is another column. Those wishing to purchase will find their assortment of goods exallent and their prices unusually low.

STEPHEN H. SARBER Was elected Burgess of Law reneevilte on Tuesday Inst. Mr. S. is a demourat, and his election is but the parbinger of a more decisive and important democratic victory to-day.

THOSE MEDALS .- We see in the city papers the proceedings of a meeting of the commissioned officers of the military of this city and county, requesting Col. TROVILLO to postpone the trial for the medals presentedby Dr. M'Clinteck, until the 10th September next. They were to have been shot and drilled for on the 4th April, and that being a busy season of the year, the objection is, that companies from a distance cannot attend, and our own companies will be put to great
