to you a debt of gratitude that money cannot pay, I am induced to make a public acknowledgment of the benefit my wife has derived from your invaluable pills.—

About three years this winter she was taken with a pain in her ankle, which soon became very much influenced and swilton, so much so that we became alarmflamed and swillen, so much so that we became alarmed, and sent for the doctor. During his attendance the pain and swelling increased to an alumning degree, and in three weeks from its first commencement it became a running sore. She could get no rest at night the pain was so great. Our first doctor attended her for six months; and she received no benefit whatever, the pain growing worse and the sore larger all the while. He said if it was healed up it would be her death, but he appeared to he at a loss how to preceed, and poor wife still continued to suffer the most terrible
