LOAFERIEN .- The proprietors of the different hotel and bar-rooms in Mobile have resolved to abolish the gistations lunch system. This determination, it ap pours has been induced by the great number of loafers who infost the taverse, and get their entire living at the ensole tables. The Daily Advertiser says that no less than $50 persons have been supported in that way at only three establishments in that city.

Twenty negroes left this city on Sunday, on the Macedonian for New Orleans, where they are to em-tark for Liberia. They were the slaves of Thomus Lindsay, Sr. late of St Charles county, and manumity by him on condition that they would go to Liberia. They were in charge of one of the executors of the esate.-St Louis Rep.

The Vandalia (III) Free Press says: "Numerous flat-boats are leaving our wharf. Two left here last Monday, and took with them freight to the amount of $8,000. Vandalia is situated on the Kaskaskia river.

The remains of SUMMER LINCOLN FAIRFIELD were vesterday interred in Cypress Grove Cometery. His ageil mother and three of his little orphons-two sweet looking boys and a girl-followed the hearse to the levely spot. The mother's tears fell free and warm * bile the prattle and smile of the fittle innocents but to. plainly told they knew not that their father was no more!-N O Pic.
