PITTIBURGH, PA. MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 25, 1844.

The Journeyman Saddlers of the city are now on a strike for higher wages.

The Steamer Lehigh Lrought up to Wheeling twelve Bufalces, in charge of a half breed hunter. Their destination is Beltimore. While shipping them on the Lehigh at Cincinnati, one of them made s bold effort for freedom. He broke from his driver, soop to his hosis, and fisw around the wharfs until hard pressed by his pursuers, be dashed into the river, and bufficted the waves full galiantly, closely followed by three dogs, as many skiffs, and one steamboat, (the Charice.) Just us he had arrived at the Kentucky shore, he was overtaken, and brought back in triumph. The scene was quite excluing and novel.

Spause.-Our country friends have had an early opportanity to commence their spring labor. In many parts of the country a large portion of the ploughing is done, and if it had not been for the heavy rains of she inst week many farmers would have had their oate under ground. The fall grain we are told has a fine sppentance and bids fair to yield an average ctop.

LARGE BIRD .- Mr Simeon Smith, of Frankfort, Losisiana, shot a baid-braded cagie a few days since, which measured six feet three inches from tip to up of its wings.

A joke is told of Valabreque, Catalini's husband, that when Madame complained to him at some concert, that the piano forte was too high for her voice meaning, of course, in pitch-be sent for a carpenter to shorten the legs of the instrument.
