Let'them land the notes, that in music floats, Through their bright and glittering halls;
While the amorous twirl of the hair's bright curl Round the shoulder of beauty falls; But design to me is the song of the tree, And the rich and blossoming bough;
Oh! these are the sweets which the rustic greets, As he follows the Good Old Plough.

Then how jocund the song as it comes ulong From the ploughman's lusty throat; Did the hunter his shout ever yet give out To the brown woods a marrier note? Though he follows no hound, yet his day is crown'd, With a triumph as good I trow, As though antiered head at his feet lay dead, Instead of the Good Old Plough.

Full many there be that we daily see With a selfish and hollow pride; Who the Ploughman's lot in his humble cot. With a scornful look deride. Yet I'd rather take, aye, a hearty shake From his hand than to wealth I'd ow For the honest grasp of the hand's rough clasp, Has stood by the Good Old Plough.

All honor be then to these grey old men, When at last they are bow'd with toil; Their warfare then o'er, why they battle no more For they've conquered the stubborn soil; And the chaplet each wears are his silver bairs, And ne'er shall the victor's brow With a laurel crown to the grave go down. CURE OF A CANCELLOUS SORE.

Sing Sing, January 21, 1843.

Dr. Benjamin Brandreth:—Honored Sir, owing to you it debt of gratitude that money cannot pay, I am induced to make a public action to the benefit my wife has derived from your invaluable pills About three years this winter she was taken with a pain in her ankle, which suon became very much ined and swallen, so much so that we became alarmed, and sent for the doctor. During his attendance and in three weeks from its first commencement it became a reaning sore. She could get no rest at night the pain was so great. Our first doctor attended her for six months; and she received no benefit whatever, while. He said if it was healed up it would be her direct or taking one nights rest at their option.

Notwithstanding Dr. Leidy never pretended his Bloud Pills would cure all disenses, yet it is not saying too much of them, from the innumerable cures performed by them in every variety and form of disease (cer-tificates of many of which have been published from persons of all denominations, physicians, clergymen, and others) that they seem to be almost universal in their effect; and persons using them for whatever sickness or disease, may rest assured that they will be found more efficacious than any other pills in existence.

From the known reputation of Dr. Leidy's Blood Pill, it is necessary to remind the public where they can at all times procure the genuine, as it is attempted. to impose other pills, called the Blood Pills' upon the public on the reputation of Dr. Leidy's.
