PITTSBURGH, PA.

FREDAY MORNING, APRIL 5, 1844. April 4th, on motion of H. S. MAGRAW, THORA DORRELLY, Esq., was admitted to practice as an atething in the several Courts of Alleghany county. The President of the Board of Commi of Spring Garden, John H. Dohners, Esq., offers in an official form, a reward of $300, for the arrest and conviction of the villains, who, on the morning of the 25th emered the Good Will Hess House, in Callowhill street, took out the carriage, Sec., of like Compeny, and burnt them.

JAIL BURRY. - The Jailat Somerset, Perry co. Obio, was burnt last week. Nichols Riggin, a criminal escaped. It is thought he made a hole in the wall-and then set fire to his old residence in revenge. A reward is offered for him.

THE LOSS OF THE ROWENA. It is supposed that two persons were drowned at the burning of the steamboat Rowena, at Mobile.

Of 473 bales of cotton on board of her, only one was saved. It was threwn overboard to furnish two or three of the persons on board a conveyance to the wharf. The loss in baggage and money has not been ascertained. One gentleman was usleep in the cabin at the time the fire broke out. He had barely time after waking, to seize his clothes and leap ashore. All his baggage, except the garments he escaped with including considerable money, was consumed. It is said that there were fifty thousand dollars in various sums on the boat during the duy. How much of that had been taken off is not yet ascertained. - Phila.

A POWERFUL INTERCESSOR

A Gambling case of considerable interest has occupied the Circuit Court of New York for some days, and was brought to decision on Friday last. Messra Dows & Guitenu, prosecuted Henry Cotton for the recovery of $6000, said to have been lost by a Clerk of the firm at a numbling house kern by the defendant of the firm at a gambling house kept by the defendant.
Judge Kent, before whom the action was laid, charged the Jury—"that the plaintiffs being merchants in the be recommended to the shipping and travelling comcity, employed as Clerk Robert H Davis, and this munity as a safe and expeditious boat. For freights young man, as their agent, possessed himself of bills belonging to them to the amount of $6000, and that being thus possessed they came into the hands of Colton by an illegal act; and I charge you that if Colton did obtain them by gaming—by being the keeper of a Faro Bank, he obtained them illegally, and has no title to them." The jury, after hearing from his honor a full and hood avalance on the large against nor a full and lucid explanation of the laws against gambling houses, retired for about an hour, and returned a verdict for plaintiffs of $4250 with interest since February 1843, being the whole sum which was have been lost at the house of the defend Mass Meeting.

FRIENDS OF THE TARIFF, ATTEND! The citizens generally, without distinction of party opposed to the Tariff Bill drafted by Mr McKay. hairman of the Committee of Ways and Means in the House of Representatives, or any alternation of the present Tariff, are respectfully requested to attend at meeting to be held at the New Court House, on next Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. By a large and general attendance, we will manifest our approbation of the action taken on the subject by the other districts of the Commonwealth-encourage our Representatives in Congress faithfully to discharge the important duties devolving upon them—induce more deliberation and caution in disturbing existing interests by a wayward and fluctuating policy, which de-

Saveral addresses will be delivered by popular speakers, and resolutions be presented for the action of the meeting. (Signed by 113 citizens.)

DIED been a citizen of Indianopolis, to which point he emigrated from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania During the whole period of his residence among us, his life was of that active business usines, which brought him in contact with a large portion of our society; we feel assurred that the common verdict of all, upon his character, is, that it was that of a strictly honest, generous-hearted, and liberal man—a public spirited citizen, and a an impulsive friend. In his loss the community sustains no ordinary blow, while the large circle of his personal friends feel that the hand of death is indeed hat they can now offer such inducements as will make
