The Dear Girl of the Free. BY WILLIAM WALLACE.

Flow bright are those eyes where the summer Like a glory hung over the blue-Where the calm sunny waves of the whispering strea Are as bright and unchangeable too; While the low silver music of Italy rings From the depths of her rose-blus And the spirits of love, on their tremulous wings, Are awaked from an Edua of flowers.

Oh! brilliant the glance of the Castilian naid,
Who has looked through the jessamine leaves,
As if for the coming of one half afraid— At whose absence she mournfully grieves.

Not for these! Not for these shell we eagerly ros O'er the soraline halls of the sea.
But exclaim, as we kneel by our alters at home,
"Give us the dear Girl of the Free!"

She is born where the breezes are sent from their doe Playing over the cradle of love,
And at night time to watch 'round her innocent ale The gold stars ever sparkle above; r music's the song of the groen forest-lyres, And well may their harmonies roll, For they find a strain sweeter than wilde

In the melody breathed from her soul. See the splendor that plays o'er her exqusite form, See the glory that burns in her eye,
As exulting she marks the star-flag, like a storm,
By her lover unfurl'd to the sky! Then shout while that banner displays ev'ry fold

Over mountain and valley and lea-Aye, shout, comrades, for all the bride of the Give us the dear Girl of the Free!

DEFEATED CANDIDATES

The coon papers, are literally terrified at the ide shat Mr Van Buren should again become a candidate for the Presidency, after he was defeated in 1840 -And yet they are running Clay for President, who has been defeated thrice in succession. Markle for Governor, who was a candidate for Congress, and was beaten over 2.500—and Guilford for Canal Commissigner, who run for the same office last fall and was beaten only about 14,000. Defeated candidates, forsooth! Why, they are running a trio of the most su-perannuated political hacks that could be scraped to-gether in all the states of the Union!—Dem Union.

If the time shall ever come when this mighty fabric shall totter, the cause will be found in the ignorance shall totter, the cause will be round in the ignorance of the people. If our Union is still to continue to cheer the hopes and animate the efforts of the oppressed of every nation; if our fields are to be untrod by the hirelings of despotism; if long days of blessedness are to attend our country in her career of glory, if you would have the sun to continue to shed his unclouded rays upon the face of freemen, then educate all the chidren in the land. This alone startles the tyrant in his dreams of power, and arouse the slumbering energies of an oppressed people. It was intelligence that reared up the majestic columns of our national glory; and this alone can prevent their crumbling to sehes,—Jefferson

HYPOCRISY. It is not our habit to allude to the private affairs of public men, unless these are connected with public matters. We see however going the rounds of the whig papers, extracted, we believe, from one of the eng Clay biographies, that the moral whig can didate has not played a game of hazard for twelve years! We have nothing to do with Mr Clay's games, except the political one; but we ask his friends and associates Vashington, if they are not ashar circulation of such a barefaced falsehood, for electioned ing purposes? We will do Mr Clay the justice to admitthat we do not believe him to be capable of the meanness of sanctioning such a statement.

The Whig Prize Banner, now in progress at Baltimore will, it is said, be a splendid affair.—Phil. Inquirer. So was the "great Whig purty," and the "monster Bank," both "splendid affairs,"—what are they now!

"splendid ruins!"—Ball Repub.
