VALUER'S LETTER .- We will finish this long and resting letter to-morrow, and will then devote our a space to light reading. The letter has proved to onger than we anticipated, and to those of our readwho take no interest in the question it discusses, it doubtless been unwelcome; but to the general readthe mass of statistical information it presents, and ability of the whole argument, has served 15 repay tor its perusal

HEATRE.-Miss CLARENDON advertises to open Theatre on this evening with an efficient stock npany, and the promise of a succession of brilliant reduring the season. From her indefatigable efis to make such arrangements as will please the patis of the Theatre, it is evident that every thing is rhower will be done to render it a successful season I we hope her endeavors will be liberally rewarded Mr S . G. ISHAM, clerk of that fine boat, the nciunati papers, for which he has our thanks.

IT The Cinchnati Enquirer publishes under the ad of "Cicy Matters," the murder committed by chl, in this city, on the 1st, without stating where i surred. We object to the Cincinnatians appropring our murder-it is very rare that one occurs in s city, and when it does we want the credit of it.
