The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 11, 1844.

☞ See fourth page.

The child of DIEHL, the murderer, that was so horribly mutilated, is able to run round. It will lose its eye.

THEATRE.—Mr HILL, the celebrated Yankee Comedian, makes his first appearance this evening. He performs in two of his most amusing parts, Jedediah Homespun in the Green Mountain Boy, and Major Wheeler in New Notions.

ACCIDENT.—We learn that a child of Mr. Joseph Pearson's of Diamond Alley, was yesterday run over by a carriage, and seriously injured.

☞ The Meadville Democrat says that more than fifty boats passed through that place on Saturday and Sunday, loaded with potatoes, lumber, &c., on their way to Pittsburgh. Here's a chance for something better than "small potatoes."

☞ We are indebted to Messrs. Sturgeon and Anderegg, for Legislative documents.

☞ The exhibition of Madame BLAIGEU's pupils, on Tuesday evening, was attended by a large company, who appeared much delighted with the performances of the juvenile dancers. The performing of some of the pupils is highly creditable to their teacher and is the most satisfactory testimonial of her ability to teach what she proposes

WESTMORELAND REPUBLICAN.—This paper has passed into the hands of D K MARCHAND, Esq. who promises that it shall pursue the same course as heretofore. The Republican has ever been a staunch and efficient democratic paper, and we doubt not will ever continue so. The new editor has our heartiest wishes for his success, and to the old one we wish better fortune than generally results from editing a news paper.

☞ The editor of the American did not give his readers one word about the result of the election in the 7th district, Maine, although the news was received eight or nine hours before his paper went to press. "Now what can be thought of the American as a newspaper?" Perhaps the editor thinks it is a "hoax?"

DEATH IN THE PENITENTIARY.—JOHN BIRD, who was sentenced to the Penitentiary for burning his wife in this city, some fifteen months ago, died a day or two since.

NEW MUSIC!

The friends of harmony and vocal talent will have a rich treat on Thursday next, at 10 o'clock, A. M. at the Auction Mart of P. M'Kenna, on Wood street. The performance which will be various, are to be conducted by an old amateur, who is the very soul of music, in all his performances.

It is expected the attendance will be numerous, and as no charge is made for admission, persons will have more encouragement to pay for such articles as may be sold under the music of the hammer.

DIED.—This morning, at 5 o'clock, Mr CHARLES QUIGLEY, for many years a resident of this city, aged 36 years. His funeral will take place from his late residence, the Dravo House, this afternoon at three o'clock. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.

This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily, from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment; suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three transhipments between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, are by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.

To give undoubted security to owners and shippers, all goods and produce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners.

Merchandise shipped by this line in any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine & Co, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh to any part of the west, free of commissions.

UNITED STATES

PORTABLE BOAT LINE

For the transportation of Merchandize to and from

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.

Shippers can rely on having their produce, merchandize, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c.
