THE TRUE WAY TO RECOVER · HEALTH

An individual only wishes to know the right way to pursue it; and there are none, were it surely made known how Live might be prolonged and Health recovered, who would not doubt the plan. Evidence is required that the right way is discovered This is what those suffering from sickness want to be satisfied about. For who is so foolish as not trenjoy all the health that his body is capable of? Who is there that would not live when his experience can so snoch benefit hi uself and family? It is a melancholy fact that a very large proportion of the most useful mambers of society die between the ages of thirty and forty. How many wislows and helpless orphans have been the consequence of mandkind not having in their own power the means of restoring health when lost. Now all these dangers and difficulties can be prevented and the long and certain sickness, and by assisting nature in the outset, with a good slose of Brandreth's Pills. This is a fact, well understood to be so by thou-sands of our citizens. This medicine, if taken so as to purge freely, will surely cure any curable disease.—
There is no form or kind of sickness that it does not exert a curative influence upon. Thus, by their power in resisting putrefaction, they cure measles, small pox, worms and all contageous fevers. There is not a medicine in the world so able to purify the mass of blood, and restore it to a healthy condition, as the The Brandreth Pills are purely vogetable, and s scent that the infant of a month old may use them if medicine is required, not only with safety but with a certainty of teceiving all the benefit medicine is capable of imparting. Females may use them in all the crit-cal periods of their lives. The Brandreth Pills will ure their health, and produce regularity in all the

The same may be said of Brandreth's external remede, as an out ward application to all external pains or swellings, or sores, it greatly assists the cure. -When used where the skin is very tender or broken, it should be mixed with one or two pints of water. A sure test of genuine Brands eth Pills.—Examine the box of Pills. Then look at the certificate of agency, whose engraved date must be within the year, bich every authorised agent must possess; if the three labels on the box agree with the three labels on the cer-tificate, the Pills are true—if not, they are false. Principal office, 241 Broadway, New York.

IMPORTANT FACTS. DR. LEIDY'S Sarsaparilla Blood Pills are applica ble in all cases, whether for Purgatives of Pu rification, They possess all the boasted virtues of other pills, and are additionally efficacious, containing Saraaparilla in their composition, which is not contained in any other pills in existence. They are also different from other pills in composition, being purely segetable, and can be employed at all times, without any danger, and requiring no restraint from occupation or usual course of living.

Notwithstanding Dr. Leidy never pretended his Blood Pills would cure all diseases, yet it is not saying so much of them, from the innumerable cures perform ed by them in every variety and form of disease (cer-sificates of many of which have been published from persons of all denominations, physicians, clergymen, and others) that they seem to be almost universal in their effect; and persons using them for whatever sick-ness or disease, may rest assured that they will be found more efficacious than any other pills in existence. From the known reputation of Dr. Leidy's Blood Pill, it is necessary to remind the public where they can at all times procure the genuine, as it is attempted to impose other pills, called the Blood Pills' upon the public on the reputation of Dr. Leidy's.

Be particular and sak for Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla Blood Pills and see that the name of N B. Leidy is contained on | two sides of each box, (the boxes being of paper, and sale at this office. Mong, squareshape, surrounded by a yellow and black

One of us must always remain at home to take care of our old father; but she who went away always returned with some branches of hawthorn gathered from the hedges.— Then she would speak to the other of the sun, the trees, the fresh eir, until the other imagined that she had also quitted the house. Then in the evening we work. ed together by the lamp. We could not talk for our parents slept by our side, but at last when we raised our eyes each one met in the face of the other a loving smile. Then we retired to our little chamber, but no to sleep until a loved voice had often repeated, 'Good night! sleep well, dear sister.'

Might not God have left us together ! But I do "It might not God nave lett us together in not complain; Martha is happy in heaven!
"It might have been the want of air and exercise, or perhaps even of happiness, which gave to Martha the first species of disease; I saw her languish, washing the first species of disease; I saw her languish. en, suffer. Alas, I alone was auxious about her, for my mother could not see, and Martha never complainmy mother could not see, and Martha never complained. My father was just entering into the state of insensibility in which you now see him. It was not until it was too late that I could persuade my sister to call in a physician. He could do nothing; she languished a little; then died.

a little; then died.

"The evening before her death, she made me sit by her bedside, took my hand in her's, and said to me: Farewell, my poor Ursula; you are the only thing in the world that I regret. Have courage; take good care of our father and mother; they are good. Ursula; they love us though they do not tell disco. Be careful of your health; you must not die before them. Farewell, dear sister: ween not too much: pray offeet to well, dear sister; weep not too much; pray often to God. And we shall meet again, Ursula! REAL ESTATE AGENCY, CONVEYANCING &c. &c.

"Several days after, Martha was carried away in her coffin, and I remained alone with my parents."

"When I told my mother of Martha's death, she gave a loud cry, took two or three steps, then fell down on her knees. I approached, raised her, and led only she became more silent than ever, and I often saw the boads of her rosary passing between her fair-
