SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 13, 1844. See fourth page.

THEATRE .- Thus for the Theatre has been doing a very fair business. The company is generally good, far superior to any we have had for many seasons, and if they continue to please as well as they have since the opening, we have no doubt but the Theatre will be well supported.

Miss CLARENDON has met with numerous little disappointments at the commencement, which prevented her from opening the House under as favorable ampiees as she hoped to do. Many members of the company failed to arrivo at the time stipulated and this disappointment was a serious interruption to the arrangements she had made for the commencement of the season: Notwithstanding these annoyances and disappointments she has been enabled to give the highest satisfaction, and to convince the visiters of the Theatre that she will do all in her power to revive the legitimate drama in our city, and to make the Theatre what it was in former days, a place of ration al amusement and useful instruction. The performances this evening, being for the benefit of Mr. HILL, is of the most attractive kind, and should draw an overflowing house. See advertisement in another column.

A NEW TRADE .- We observed yesterday, lying by the Hand street bridge, a flat boat laden with chairs, THACKER. bedsteads, settees, &c. We understand that it comes For Cincinnati. from Chatauque lake, in the state of New York, and is owned by Mr CUNNINGHAM, and is the second boat of the kind that has ever arrived from that country -The furniture is of the best quality and most beautiful place and Cincinnati, leaving Pittsburgh every Wedkind, and will be disposed of cheaper than it can be had nesday morning, at 10 o'clock, and Cincinnati every in this city. This is a new enterprise. Persons to prevent explosion of boilers. The Little Ben is provided with Evans' safety guard in want of furniture, would do well to visit Mr C's bout, as he offers good articles at low rates.
