PITTSBURGH, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 15, 1844. See fourth page.

THEATRE.-On Saturday evening the Theatre was erowded from Pit to Gallery, and it was necessary for the comfort of the audience, to stop the sale of ticks ets to some parts of the House. Such encouragement is very flattering to the management, and shows that the enterprise of the fair lessee is favorably appreciated by the play goers of our city. A very attractive bill is offered for this evening.

LECTURES ON PALESTINE AND JERUSALEM .- We would call public attention to the Lectures of Mr. D. W. Swarz, on Palestine and Jerusalem, advertised forthis evening. The subjects of the Lecture will be illustrated by forty beautiful maps and views, each magnified to cover sixty or one hundred square feet. These lectures have been spoken of in the highert terms by the press in the principal cities where they have been delivered, and many of the most distinguished men have expressed their great satisfaction with the highly instructive and interesting character of Mr | Por Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis. Swartz's descriptions of the Hely Land.

By an advertisement it will be seen that Mr. Geo. Armor has "come down a peg," and now has his above and intermediate ports on Tuesday, 16th inst. tailoring establishment in the room lately occupied as a law office by Mr. Austin. He believes that the Guard. success of his predecessor proved that his present lo--cation is a very suit-able place to get up suits, but he thinks that he has a decided advantage of the last occupant, as he can confidently assure all who may employ his services, that they need not apprehend that will be ever necessary for them to take a non-suit.

LEGISLATIVE DESPATCH. not idle, we may mention that SEVENTY-FIVE private bills were passed through their several readings by the House of Representatives on yesterday and ordered to be sent to the Senate for concurrence A similar instance of legislative despatch is perhaps not on roord .- Dem. Union.

COMPLIMENT.—At a large and respectat ting of the M. W. T. Society, which was convened at their Hall on the 12th inst ,the following Resolution was adopted, with expressions of warm approbation. Resolved, That this community owe a debt of grat tude to the Hon. Judge PORTER, of the Court of Quarter Sessions of this county, for his moral and praise-worthy course in attempting to eradicate the vice of dissipation from our city and county, by suppressin those sinks of iniquity, tippling houses.
He has stood firm and true to the cause of humanit amidst the opposition of Bacchanalians and official partiality; may God grant all such just and good men
