The Daily Morning Post

FOR THE PUST On Thursday, April 11th, a young lady, whose cir estances in life seemed enviable, turned her face from earthly attractions, and joined that heaven-formed band, The Sisters of Mercy. She was young, wealthy and beautiful.

> She stands in her father's hall. That young and levely girl, She looks upon a weeping throng. Who come to take a last farewell! Low and sweet her voice doth rise, Like incense wafted to the skies:-

" Farewell father! Farewell mother! Farewell sister! Farewell brother! Fare ye well my friends together ! Fare ye well on earth forever! Be ye ready for the meeting, When in heaven we change our greeting.'

She looked around the wealth robed room, Is 't lighter than the recluse cell of gloom? No! to the Christian there is light, In darken'd cell or blackest night!

"Bring me now my bridal robe," she cries, "Oh be it fit for Him I soon shall wed, Pure as His name, of lily white, and fair, Like unto the robes that hely angels wear. And now prepared-away to church!"

Oh, queenlike was her step and full of majesty, As she paced slow and firm the aisle along; Her full dark eye coined crystal tears of joy. Which ber silken tashes gently shadowed o'er. Before God's altar now, she bends in prayer-"Strength of the weak! Oh, aid me now to bear The cross I take-to keep the vows I breather Aid me to leave all earthly clinging bere below, HOLY TRIUNE! hear me w! angels write my vow!" Hark! The character's hymn falls low and sweet Upon the car, and now her holy Sisters greet The new found bride. How deep and clear Her accents Vall upon the listening ear; The vow is passed—to her the bliss is given To be a hely chosen bride of Heaven!

Oh! who will dure gainsay the faith That thus leads on to early piety? Oh! who will dore revile the thema! The sacred theme, that angels sing In heaven, the faithful here on earth, The glorious song of LIVE FOREVERMORE!

PITTSBURGH, April 12. E. J. EXTRAORDINARY MARRIAGE CEREMONY The neighborhood of St. John's Chapel, St. John's equare, Clerkenwell, has recently, as we learn from a London paper, been the scene of great interest and curiosity, in consequence of a most novel and extraor-dinary character having taken place: "The Rev. Mr Hugh Hughes, minister of St. John's Chapel, in the course of his visitations to relieve the poor in the lower walks of life, and afford them religious aid, discovered a great number of persons of both sexes, living together in a state of profligacy. Thro the medium of his exhortations they were brought to a sense of the impropriety of such a course of life, and eighty-six men and women, consisting of butchers. costermongers, tailors, shoemakers and others, of va-rious trades and callings, consented at the request of the Rev. gentlemen to appear at St. John's Chapel, on Monday, there to go through the matrimonial ceremon

"Every arrangement was made for this occasion, and at an early hour the galleries were filled with highly respectable persons; male and female, in order witness the ceremony, and the body of the edifice was crowded, whilst the greatest interest was manifested outside by numerons spectators. The police, and Bucklaw, the beadle, were inattendance to keep order, and prevent any inconvenience. As eight o'clock in the morning, the 'happy couples' began to arrive, and they were ushered through one door into pews. The reverend gentleman at length took his station at the alter and commenced his labor, when he continued to go through the solemn ceremony amid the greatest ilence, until he successively went through 23 mar ringes, some young, some middle-aged and others old repentants. On Thursday, the Chapel was again crowded, and the ceremony was performed with 23

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE. We were shocked with the intelligence yesterda morning, that during the preceding night James Percy Brown, Esq. of Mississippi, had put an end to his exletence. The occurrence took place at the Nashville inn. The weapon used, was a pistol-the ball entermg his head and causing instant death. Mr Brown was lauseful elected a member of the Legislature of Mississippi, from which State he had just arrived.— He has left an amiable and interesting family to mourn his untimely and lamentable end-which took place, as we learn from the verdict of the jury of inquest, "un-deratemporaryalienation of mind" His funeral takes place this day at 11 o'clock, at the residence of his ather-in-law, Hon George Washington Campbell. Dr. Renjamin Brandreth:-Honored Sir, owing to you a debt of gratitude that money cannot ray, I am nduced to make a public acknowledgment of the benefit my wife has derived from your invaluable pills .-About three years this winter she was taken with a ISAAC BARRIS, pain in her ankle, which soon became very much inflamed and swollen, so much so that we became alarm ed, and sent for the doctor. During his attendance the pain growing worse and the sore larger all the while. He said if it was healed up it would be her tortures. We therefore sought other aid in a Botanical doctor, who said when he first saw it that he could soon cure the sore, and give her ease at once. To our surprise he gave her no relief, and acknowledged that it baffled all his skill. Thus we felt after having tried during one whole year the experience of two celebrated physicians in year the experience of two celebrated physicians in vain, in absolute despair. My poor wife's constitution rapidly failing in the prime of her years from her continued suffering. Under these circumstances we concluded that we would try your Universal Vegetable Pills, determined to fairly test their curative effects.—To my wife's great comfort the first few doses afforded great relief to the pain. These Pills are composed of herbs, which exert a specific action upon the heart, give impulse or strength to the arterial system; the blood is quickened and equalized in its circulation through all the vessels, whether of the skin, the parts situated internally, or the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent increase of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbent and exhalent or discharging vessels. Any morbid action which may have taken place is corrected, all obstructions are removed, the blood is purified, and the body retaines a healthful state. CERTIFICATES.—Letter, from the Hon. Ab'h'm M'Clei-au, Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Memberof Congress

WASHINGTON, July 3d, 1938.
Sir_Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and eatir faction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Campbell county Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he has employed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Pennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the eare of Robert King & Sons, Knozville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tnzwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several countles in East Tennessee, a grent deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Bluntville, Sullivan County, East Tennesser; I can get some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there.

Yours respectfully, ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennessee. For sale Wholest'e and Retail, by
