Here is a letter from Mr. Clay to Henry A. Wise Amed Feli. 28, 1842 in which Mr. Clay says: I did not know that Mr Graves bore a note from Gol Webb to Mr Cilley, until after the delivery of the note and after Mr Graves received from lum a verbal nativer. In that stage of the transaction, and for the first time, Mr Graves communicated the matter to me, spid I congratulated him on the fact of that answer being refrictly satisfactory and such as to absolve him from all obligation to pursue the affair further."—On conversing together, we both agreed that, to guard against future misunderstanding and misrepresentation was desirable that Mr Cilley should put in writing what he had verbally answered." Upon this advice Mr Graves required a written statement from Mr Cilley, containing a concession that the letter already referred to, Mr Clay says: Being the friend of Mr. Graves, I could not in woke the authority of the police to prevent the duel. His friends, Mt Charles King and Reverdy John son, concur in stating, that on their urgent appeal to Mr Cay to aid in arresting the duel, Clay replied in substance, "that we saw how he was situated. Mr. Graves had consulted him. He ought not, he said to have been consulted; but having been, the honor of his friend who was the challenger, night be compromised by any advance on his (Mr Clay's) part to arrest the progress of the affair." These gentlemen found Mr Graves with Mr Clay on that occasion, it then being 6 o'clock in the evening, and early the next morning the auful murder was consummated almost in eight of the capitol.

Mr Clay says, he did not expect the duel to be fought the next day, because Mr Graves had not at shat time procured a rifle; but Mr Clay's colleague in the percent a rine; but AIr City's contengue in the senate, and one of his particular friends in the house, borrowed one about 12 o'clock at high which the fatal deel was consummated in the morning.

Mr Wiso, who was Graves, second, has declared that the dual was caused by Clay's advice which di fered from his own; and Clay says in his letter,
