PITTSBURGH, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 17, 1844.

☞ See fourth page.

JUDGE WILKINS' LETTER.—We published this morning an address from the Hon WILLIAM WILKINS to the citizens of this district in favor of the annexation of Texas. The arguments used are clear, strong and convincing, and will cause many to waver if not change altogether, in their opposition to the measure. It exhibits the question in a new light and shows that some of the more serious evils which it is supposed would accompany the annexation of Texas to the Union will, in all probability, never occur. The commercial advantages which would ensue from the adoption of the measure are clearly set forth, and will do much to remove the opposition that has heretofore been urged against it.

TEXAS.—The latest rumor from Washington is that both Mr Van Buren and Mr Clay will shortly announce themselves in favor of the annexation of Texas.—Should this be true, it will create considerable flattering among some politicians.

THEATRE.—The bill this evening is a good one.—The "Dumb Girl of Genoa" and the "Man About Town," (not the one that was flogged) should draw a good house, and the songs of Mr Nelson and the dancing of the little Buckleys adds much to the attractions of the evening.

We are indebted to the obliging Clerk of the LITTLE BEN, for late Cincinnati papers.

☞ On Monday evening, Miss CLARENDON delivered the following neat address to the audience. It was received in a spirit that fully evinced their satisfaction with her performances, and gave assurance of their support for the future.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—

As Manageress of this Theatre, some explanation seems to be required of me, for the numerical weakness of my company, which has thus far been honored with your kind indulgence. Before my departure from New Orleans I engaged all the members of my company whose names I have announced upon the bills. I entered into written engagements with them all; and for a portion of them I secured their passages to this city. Relying upon their assurances, I arrived here in the confident anticipation that I could open with my whole force. I have been deceived and it is for you to say whether after all I deserve your censure. I have the gratification of assuring you, however, that a gentleman has been despatched for assistance, and in the course of the week, I will introduced to you some new pieces, which I trust you will look upon and be pleased. In the mean time, for a few evenings, I will endeavor to amuse you with my present force, happy in the belief that you will not withdraw from me, in my present position, your heart acknowledged kindness. I feel that no recommendation of my own, can enhance the value of the applause with which you have received the ladies and gentlemen already employed; they have labored under many disadvantages, and their exertions merit your approval, and entitle them to my gratitude, while I hope they have not failed in making a favorable impression upon your minds.

☞ The steamer Belle of Nashville caught fire at the whirl at Cincinnati, on Saturday morning, but was put out before any material damage was done.

STEAMBOAT ACCIDENT.—The Cincinnati Commercial states that the Lelia in coming from Kenawha on Thursday, ran on a ledge of rocks and knocked a hole or two in her. She went into the dock at Cincinnati to repair.

COLLECTOR OF THE PORT OF NEW YORK.—Edward Curtis has been removed from this post, and Charles G. Ferris, late M. C. nominated in his stead.

FATAL DUEL.

A duel, which terminated fatally, took place yesterday morning, near the tobacco presses below the city. The parties were John DeBuys and Victor Castein—the weapons double-barrelled shot guns. At the first fire Castein received the contents of his adversary's piece in his breast, fell, and expired almost immediately.—Picayune, 6th inst.

H DEVINE,
E G WHITESIDES, } Proprietors,
BUZBY & BROTHER,

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.
This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily, from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.
The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment; suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three transhipments between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, are by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.
To give undoubted security to owners and shippers, all goods and produce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office, in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners.
Merchandise shipped by this line in any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine & Co, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh to any part of the west, free of commissions.
H. Devine will receive produce consigned to him, pay steamboat freight and charges, and forward the same to any of the eastern cities, and charge no commissions for storage, advancing or forwarding. PORTABLE BOAT LINE
For the transportation of Merchandize and Produce

THE success this line has met with, since it was first established on the "Individual Enterprise" system, has induced the proprietors to increase the number of Boats during the winter to twenty-five, one of which will leave Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore every day (except Sundays) during the season, and make the trip through in five days.
The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.
Shippers can rely on having their produce, merchandize, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c.
