THE LADY'S DREAM.

We copy the following lines from a new periodical destined, we doubt not, to obtain high favor with the public—Hood's Masking and Comic Miscellany.—"The Lady's Dream" is a good companion piece for "The Song of the Shirt;" and is, we believe, from the pen of the same author:—

The lady fell on her bed,
Her limbs refused any more to bear
Up the weight of her head;
But her heart was throbbing and broken still;
For dreadful cares had oft
From time to time, like nightmare, crouched,
And pressed her arms aloft.

At last she started up,
And gazed on the vacant air,
With a look of woe, as if she saw
Some dreadful phantom there;
And then in the pillow she hugged her face
From visions ill to bear.

The very curtain shook,
Her terror was so extreme,
And the light that fell on the broidered quilt,
Kept a tremulous gleam;
And her voice was hollow and shook as she cried
"Oh me! that awful dream!

That weary, weary walk,
In the churchyard's dismal ground!
And those horrid things, with shady wings,
That came and flitted round;—
Death, death, and nothing but death,
In every sight and sound!

And oh! those maidens young,
Who wrought in that dreary room,
With figures drooping and spectres thin,
And cheeks without a bloom;—
And the voice that cried, 'For the pomp of pride
We haste to an early tomb!

'For the pomp and pleasure of pride,
We toil like Afric slaves,
And only to earn a home at last,
Where yonder cypress waves;'—
And then be pointed—I never saw
A ground so full of graves!

And still the coffins came,
With their sorrowful trains and slow;
Coffin after coffin still,
A sad and sickening show;
From grief exempt, I never had dreamt
Of such a world of woe!

Of hearts that daily break,
Of the tears that hourly fall,
Of the many, many troubles of life,
That grieve this earthly ball—
Disease and Hunger, Pain and Want,
But now I dreamt of them all!

For the blind and the cripple were there,
And the babe that pined for bread,
And the houseless man, and the widow poor
Who begged—to bury the dead;
The naked, alas, that I might have clad,
The famished I might have fed!

The sorrow I might have soothed,
And the unregarded tears;
For many a thronging shade was there,
From long forgotten years;
Ay, even the poor rejected Moor,
Who raised my childish fears!

Each pleading look, that long ago
I scan'd with a heedless eye;
Each face was gazing as plainly there
As when I passed it by;
Woe, woe for me if the past should be
Thus present when I die!

No need of sulphurous lake,
No need of fiery coal;
But only that crowd of human kind
Who wanted pity and ple—
In everlasting retrospect—
Will wring my sinful soul!

Alas! I have walked through life
Too heedless where I trod;
Nay, helping to trample my fellow worm,
And fill the burial sod—
Forgetting that even the sparrow falls
Not unmark'd of God!

I drank the richest draughts,
And ate whatever is good—
Fish, and flesh, and fowl, and fruit
Supplied my hungry mood;
But I never remembered the wretched ones
That starve for want of food!

I dressed as the noble dress,
In cloth of silver and gold,
With silk, and satin, and costly furs,
In many an ample fold;
But I never remembered the naked limbs
That froze with winter's cold!

The wounds I might have healed!
The human sorrow and smart!
And yet it never was in my soul
To play so ill a part:
But evil is wrought by want of thought,
As well as want of heart!"

She clasp'd her f rvent hands,
And the tears began to stream;
Large, and bitter, and fast they fell,
Remorse was so extreme;
And yet, oh yet, that many a dame
Would dream the Lady's Dream!

TO INVALIDS.

☞ How important it is that you obtain it without loss of time with BRANDRETH'S PILLS. They mildly but surely remove all impurities of the blood, and no case of sickness can effect the human frame that these celebrated pills do not relieve as much as medicine can do. Colds and coughs are more benefitted by the Brandreth pills, than by lozenges and candies. Very well, perhaps, as palliatives, but worth nothing as eradicators of disease from the human system. The Brandreth Pills cure, they do not merely relieve, they cure diseases, whether chronic or recent, infectious or otherwise, will certainly be cured by the use of those all sufficient pills.

CURE OF A CANCEROUS SORE.

SING SING, January 21, 1843.

Dr. Benjamin Brandreth:—Honored Sir, owing to you a debt of gratitude that money cannot pay, I am induced to make a public acknowledgment of the benefit my wife has derived from your invaluable pills.—About three years this winter she was taken with a pain in her ankle, which soon became very much inflamed and swollen, so much so that we became alarmed, and sent for the doctor. During his attendance the pain and swelling increased to an alarming degree, and in three weeks from its first commencement it became a running sore. She could get no rest at night the pain was so great. Our first doctor attended her for six months; and she received no benefit whatever, the pain growing worse and the sore larger all the while. He said if it was healed up it would be her death, but he appeared to be at a loss how to proceed, and poor wife still continued to suffer the most terrible tortures. We therefore sought other aid in a Botanical doctor, who said when he first saw it that he could soon cure the sore, and give her ease at once. To our surprise he gave her no relief, and acknowledged that it baffled all his skill.

Thus we felt after having tried during one whole year the experience of two celebrated physicians in vain, in absolute despair. My poor wife's constitution rapidly failing in the prime of her years from her continued suffering. Under these circumstances we concluded that we would try your Universal Vegetable Pills, determined to fairly test their curative effects.—To my wife's great comfort the first few doses afforded great relief to the pain. Within one week, to the astonishment of ourselves and every one who knew the case, the swelling and the inflammation began to cease so that she felt quite easy, and would sleep comfortably, and sir, after six weeks use she was able to go through the house, and again attend to the management of her family, which she had not done for 14 months. In a little over two months from the time she first commenced the use of your invaluable pills, her ankle was quite sound, and her health better than it had been in quite a number of years before. I send you this statement after two years test of the cure, considering it only an act of justice to you and the public at large.

We are, with much gratitude,
Very respectfully,
TIMOTHY AND ELIZA LITTLE.

P. S. The Botanical Doctor pronounced the sore cancerous, and finally said no good could be done, unless the whole of the flesh was cut off, and the bone scraped. Thank a kind Providence this made us resort to your pills, which saved us from all further misery, and for which we hope to be thankful.

Lo! what makes your teeth so unusually white?
Quoth Josh's dulcinia to him t'other night,
To make yourn look so, with a grin, replied Josh,
I've bought you a bottle of Thorn's Tooth Wash.
'Tis the best now in use, so the gentlefolks say,
And since they have tried this, cast all others away.
But to prove it the best to make the teeth shine,
Look again, my dear Sal, at the lustre of mine.
Then try this great tooth wash,
The Teaberry tooth wash,
And see if this tooth wash of Thorn's is not fine.

Having tried Dr. "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and become acquainted with the ingredients of its composition, I cheerfully say, I consider it one of the safest, as it is one of the most pleasant tooth washes now in use. DAVID HUNT, Dentist.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 15, 1842.

I take pleasure in stating, having made use of "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," that it is one of the best dentrifices in use. Being in a liquid form it combines neatness with convenience. While it cleanses the enamel and removes the tartar from the teeth, its perfume yields a fragrance peculiarly desirable.

BARON VON HUTCHELER HERB PILLS

These Pills are composed of herbs, which exert a specific action upon the heart, give impulse or strength to the arterial system: the blood is quickened and equalized in its circulation through all the vessels, whether of the skin, the parts situated internally, or the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent increase of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbent and exhalent, or discharging vessels. Any morbid action which may have taken place is corrected, all obstructions are removed, the blood is purified, and the body resumes a healthful state. The Public should be cautious of medicines recommended in advertisements stolen from me, in which the CONTEMPTIBLE ROBBERS steal my language, merely altering the name. Time will show these wholesale deceivers in their true light.

TO THOSE WHOSE OCCUPATIONS TEND TO PRODUCE OR AGGRAVATE DISEASE.—This class of individuals is very numerous. They are those who work in an unhealthy atmosphere. Painters, sawyers, file makers in leather stores, stone cutters, bakers, white lead manufacturers, are all more or less subject to disease according to the strength of their constitution. The only method to prevent disease, is the occasional use of medicine which abstracts from the circulator, all deleterious humors, and expels them by the bowels. Purges in any form are injurious, as they only put off the evil day to make it more fatal. The use of Brandreth's Pills will insure health, because they take all impure matter out of the blood; and the body is not weakened but strengthened by their operation, for these valuable Pills do not purge, but they assist nature, and are not opposed but harmonize with her.

Sold at Dr. Brandreth's Office, in the Diamond Pittsburgh. Price 25 cents per box, with full direction.

CERTIFICATES.—Letter from the Hon. Ab'm M'Clellan, Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Member of Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 3d, 1838.

SIR—Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Campbell county Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he has employed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you consider him be is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tazwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Blountville, Sullivan County, East Tennessee; I can get some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there.

Yours respectfully,
ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennessee.
