HTH PITTERPURGIS PACET MY THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 25, 344

See frigith page. New Burreige Wadazing. The first no of this past mostern Magazine was laid upon pentable yesterday, As bids fair, from the industry disc beed by its editor, the talent of its contributors, and the ex-codingly low price at which it is offered, masks high rank among the periodiscle of the country/and to sequite an extended clientation. In its list of contribu-Ciat, J. Ross Browne, T. J. Bigham, Mrs. Amelia B. Welby, Miss E. A. Evans, and many others whose ontributions would be an acquisition to any Magazine Arrangements are making with other writers of repu tation, and when the editor completes his list we trust to see a work at least as deserving of support as any emanating from the eastern cities.

Yesterday was an ugly, bot, blustering day, and the wind blew the dust about in a manner that was extionely anapying to the eyes of way farors. FIRE.—The Sligo Iron Works caught fire yesterday morning, but was extinguished before any muterial damage was done. From the Westchesler Republican.

In the Pittsburgh papers, we observe a notice that on the 20th ult., John P. Bally. formerly of this county, was on motion of H. H. Van Amringe, Esq., admitted an Attorney in the District Court and in the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny county.

It has been our pleasure to be acquainted with Mr
Baily from our boyhood up to the present time, and we tion. In him, the young men of our land have tin example worthy of their imitation, for his success in life has been the result of his own talents and industry, faithfully exerted, unaided by wealth or any factitious

In the spring of 1828, Mr. Baily was appointed a Rodman in the corps of Engineers on the Columbia and Philadelphia Rail Road, and continued in the State service till the fall of 1829, when he was ap pointed Engineer of the Mine Hill and Schuylkill Haren Rail Road, in Schuylkill county. He remained on that work until it was completed, in the spring of 1831, and-was then appointed President Engineer of the West Chester Rail Road, and superintended its construction till final completion in the fall of 1832.— He was then appointed acting Principal Engineer on the Columbia and Philadelphia Rail Road. in the ab-sence of the Principal.
