PRIZE FIGHT. A prize fight "came off" yesterday at the reat of Greina, opposite this city. The pugilists were Bill Wilson and Ned Hughes. Wilson was seconded by Tom O Dannell, and Hughes by Jack Fee. It was a hard-fought fight. After it had continued for an hour and some seven minutes, Wilson was declared the victor-Hughes having, by that time. been so severel beaten about the eyes that he became perfectly blind and could not see where to strike. They are both men of, or somewhat under, the middle size: William is $600 -- $300 a side. aThe men who engage in these "milling watches" call themselves, or are called "The Fancy." A most strange fancy is theirs, truly. Here were two men who, doubtless felt no personal enmity to one another, but, to test their prowess, pummelled one another al-most to the death for an hoar in an open filed, under n. variate sun, with the thermometer somewhere in the neighborhood of 30 deg.
