PITTSBURGH, PA.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1844.

Farming Prospects.—We are informed by some of our country friends that the present prospects for an abundant harvest are more promising than they have been for many years. The wheat fields are truly luxuriant, and if the favorable weather continues until harvest, the farmers will receive a rich reward for their toil.

Theatre.—A splendid entertainment to-night.—Knowles' play of William Tell, the excellent Melodrama of the Hunter of the Alps, and dancing by the little Bucklews.

☞ The proceedings of the Baldwin Institute, on the death of Judge Baldwin, we will publish to-morrow.

COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, May 1, 1844.

The business on the Pennsylvania Canal at this office for the month of April, is as follows, viz:

Tonnage cleared,	17,213,801 lbs.
Toll received,	$3419 07.
Number of boats cleared,	478
Whole number cleared since commencement,	702.

JOHN FLEMING, Collector.

Salad Oil.—A large lot of this article, of very rare and superior quality, is offered for sale by Williams & Dilworth. See advertisement.

Death of Rev. Mr. Carey.—The New York True Sun states that the Rev Mr Carey, whose ordination by Bishop Onderdonk occasioned so much excitement some months ago, died on his passage to Havana, when just within the harbor.

James Thompson, of Eriecounty, has been appointed Judge of the District Court of Erie, Crawford and Mercer counties. The appointment was unanimously confirmed by the Senate on Friday last.

☞ A CARD.—The Journeymen Oak Coopers of this city struck for higher wages on the 22d inst., and a majority of bosses have signed the bill of prices; and it is generally understood that those who are opposed, to the bill are about to send to other places for hands, we therefore ask them not to be deceived by their call, as the compensation we ask is small enough. a223 THE JOURNEYMEN.

LAST DAYS.

Two Healthy Children,

FORMERLY called South Sea Islanders, have arrived in this city, to remain a few days only for exhibition, at HUGHES' INN, Water street, below Wood street, on the 2d and 3d inst. Speaking of these children, they are the greatest living curiosities the public ever witnessed; they have neither hands nor feet, but long claws resembling the lateral spread claws of an eagle: they are brothers 10 and 12 years of age, very lively and active, intellect good, and nothing in their looks or actions that could offend even the most fastidious—they never fail to amuse their visiters in time of exhibition. It will readily appear that nothing can occur respecting their great singularity of a distressing character, such as usually attends curiosities of this nature. They have been visited by thousands in New York and Boston, both male and female, and by them pronounced the greatest sight among human beings. The oldest boy can converse so as to be distinctly understood, the other cannot. They will receive company on Monday, 29th April. Doors open from 9 A M till 9 P M.

☞ Admission only 12½ cents.

Ladies are requested to call through the day, as the room may be very much crowded in the evenings.

UNITED STATES

PORTABLE BOAT LINE

For the transportation of Merchandise to and from

PITTSBURGH, BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE success this line has met with, since it was first established on the "Individual Enterprise" system, has induced the proprietors to increase the number of Boats during the winter to twenty-five, one of which will leave Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore every day (except Sundays) during the season, and make the trip through in six days.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.

Shippers can rely on having their produce, merchandise, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c.
