IMPORTANT FACTS.

DR. LEIDY'S Sarsaparilla Blood Pills are applicable in all cases, whether for Purgatives or Purification. They possess all the boasted virtues of other pills, and are additionally efficacious, containing Sarsaparilla in their composition, which is not contained in any other pills in existence. They are also different from other pills in composition, being purely vegetable, and can be employed at all times, without any danger, and require no restraint from occupation or usual course of living.

Notwithstanding Dr. Leidy never pretended his Blood Pills would cure all diseases, yet it is not saying too much of them, from the innumerable cures performed by them in every variety and form of disease (certificates of many of which have been published from persons of all denominations, physicians, clergymen, and others) that they seem to be almost universal in their effect; and persons using them for whatever sickness or disease, may rest assured that they will be found more efficacious than any other pills in existence.

From the known reputation of Dr. Leidy's Blood Pill, it is necessary to remind the public where they can at all times procure the genuine, as it is attempted to impose other pills, called the 'Blood Pills' upon the public on the reputation of Dr. Leidy's. ☞ Be particular and ask for Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla Blood Pills and see that the name of N. B. Leidy is contained on two sides of each box, (the boxes being of paper, and oblong, square shape, surrounded by a yellow and black label.)

PRICE—25 cents a Box.

Prepared only, and sold wholesale and retail, at Dr. Leidy's Health Emporium, 191 North Second street, below Vine, Philadelphia, and by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO., corner of Wood and Sixth streets, Agents for Pittsburgh. jy 12—1y

From the Globe.

GREAT WHIG MEETING IN THE DISMAL SWAMP.

Pursuant to public notice, a tremendous, stupendous, and overwhelming mass meeting of quadrupeds convened at Drummond's pond, in the Great Dismal Swamp, on the 1st of April, 1844, at which "that same old coon" presided, and Buffalo, esq., was appointed secretary. The meeting having been duly organized, General Opossum rose, amidst a burst of applause that blew down several cypress trees, and delivered a speech which was taken down in short hand expressly for the Globe, by one of our subscribers, who lives at the Great Bridge, and sent to us by a fleet express. No other paper has any notice of the speech.

"Fellow-Citizens! A great crisis has arrived. (Applause.) The time is come when we, who have been hitherto deprived of our ancient and inalienable rights, under pretence of being irrational animals, incapable of self-government, are imperatively called upon to make one great effort to re-claim our original standing among those exclusive pretenders to the possession of reason. (Loud applause.) Fellow-citizens, whatever among you has heard of Æsop's Fables cannot be ignorant that all the quadrupeds were formerly and only possessed of reason, but likewise the gift of speech. (cheers,) and that they still retain both in sadsamble, it must be confessed they speak a language too learned and abstruse to be comprehended by the ignorant and unlettered: (Heart hear!) Fellow-citizens, we have been greatly oppressed by the two-legged race of animals; and, as I before stated, the period for asserting our equality, not to say our superiority, is at length come. Every dog has his day (Bow! wow! wow—hear!) I say every dog has his day, and so has every cat, (meow, meow, hear!) and so has every coon, ourse, bear, jackass, horse, rat, mouse, bull-frog, and alligator. (Long, loud and reiterated bursts of applause from all quarters, which drowned the voice of the speaker, who paused while, overcome by the intensity of his feelings, then bowing low to the audience, proceeded.)

"Fellow citizens, this is an age of revival, progress, and development. The period is at hand, (tremendous cheering,) nay, the period has arrived, when we are about to make one great effort to reclaim our original rights, and our aboriginal weight in the scale of rational beings. Yes, fellow citizens, a prophet has arisen in the shades of Hanover, (stupendous cheering among the frogs,) who not only preaches, but practices, the true doctrines of equality; and who is determined to free us from our yokes, (lowing among the oxen,) chains, and all those absurd and oppressive restrictions imposed upon us by the proud overbearing animal who has also evidence to assert that two legs are better than four, yet, in the truest item, acknowledges our superiority by imitating us in his whiskers. (Great laughter among the buffaloes.) Animated by the most exalted feeling of universal philanthropy, this distinguished individual has resolved in his boundless mind that we—yes, we also!—yes, fellow-citizens, SHALL be reinstated in our ancient and inalienable right of perfect equality with these (wool-cared usurpers. (Prodigious applause.) Yes, fellow-citizens, the ox shall no longer wear the yoke; (great bellowing among the oxen;) the bear shall be as free as those, which erewhile scampered unmolested over the West; (great neighing among the horses;) the sheep shall wear his own wool; (ba-a-a hear!) the dog shall be his own master; (bow! wow! wow—hear, bow!) the bear shall no longer live by sucking his paws in the winter; (great dancing among the bears!) the buffaloes cease to be hunted as those plains which were theirs from time immemorial; (great buffalo dance;) the opossums to which class I have the honor to belong—shall no longer carry their young in their pouches, but have access to bear them in their arms wherever they go; (here the possums ran up the gum tree in fine style and cut divers capers;) and, fellow citizens, that large and respectable class of animals, which may be said to be neither fish, flesh, nor fowl, (that especially the respectable bull-frogs,) shall be freed from the persecutions of little dirty-faced boys, when they put their heads out of the slashes; (stupendous croaking of frogs, in which some of the toads joined;) nay, fellow-citizens, the coons—ay, the very coons—those worthless animals, without courage, or honesty—here the speaker was pelted to order by the chairman, "that same old coon."

I say, fellow-citizens, those bitter to filthy, disgusting, and worthless animals called coons"—

Here the chairman rose in great agitation and said, "Really, General Opossum, I cannot sit quietly and hear my constituents (that is respectable class of animals which has lately been selected as most worthy of associating with the great universal whig party) abused in this shameful manner. You must sit down, or I shall call you to order."

"Hear me out, hear me out, Mr. Chairman," replied General Opossum. "I am paying you a great compliment, if you did but know it. I say, fellow citizens, those thieving, midnight plunderers, those dirty, ill-begotten, ill-conditioned, base, cowardly, ill-natured, and contemptible animals, we about—about to call—have already been cleared to an equality, did I say?—to a superiority over the boasted exclusive possessors of reason, by having selected as emblems, representatives and tutelaries of the virtues, manners and principles of the great universal whig party, which possesses all the decency and all the talents. They are, unless I greatly deceive myself destined, ere long, to take a prominent stand in that party, and come in for a full share of the loaves and fishes. I will detain you no longer, fellow-citizens, than merely to add that, instead of being hounded by the race of two legged tyrants—nay, even by their slaves—these dirty, thieving, cowardly, yet highly respectable animals, will, beyond all doubt, be restored to their natural inalienable right of robbing hen-roosts at pleasure, in reward for their prodigious and decisive agency in maintaining the ascendancy of the great universal whig party. (Long, loud, stupendous and everlasting cheering from the coons, who, not being able to sustain themselves, scattered off to rob a few neighboring hen-roosts.)

The chairman then rose to explain the object of the meeting. "The great question, fellow-citizens, which you have been called here to decide, is whether it be proper and expedient now to appoint delegates to the whig Baltimore convention, for designating a candidate for the presidency. What say you, fellow citizens—ay or no? Hurrah! Go ahead, my boys."

The proposition was carried by acclamation, and delegates were accordingly selected from each species of animals, though there was some discussion as to admitting the rats to be represented, they, like Mr (Billy) Rives, not having as yet defined their position. They are all, to a beast, pledged to vote for "THAT SAME OLD COON," under penalty of being set down as locofocos. The meeting then adjourned sine die, after the orator had sung "Possum up a gum tree," "The frog he would a courting go," "There was an old coon ate corn with a spoon," and the buffaloes had treated the company to a dance.

VILLAINY OF BRITISH WRECKERS.

The Boston papers received another instance of British wreckers making propositions to cast away their vessels at the Bahamas. The case is given in the following words, by a ship-master arrived at Boston recently.

"While off the west end of Great Heneaga, I was boarded by two boats belonging to wrecking craft, of which several were lying at anchor near the shore. The mate of the school of Providence, made a proposition to me to run my vessel on shore at the passage for one half the salvage, for which he would give me one half in silver, security for which he was
