INTELLIGENCE FROM WASHINGTON WASHINGTOR, April 30, 1844.

It is generally understood here, that the Hon. Mr. Spencer will send in his resignation as Sucretary of the Treasury, to-day. It is probable, however, that he will continue to act in that capacity, until his successor shall be confirmed by the Senate.

It is rumored that the mission to Russia has been offered to Mr Spencer, and thathe has declined. Also. that he may be re-nominated to fill one of the vacant Judgeships. After his recent rejection by the Semate, and other circumstances, the supposition appears to be a reasonable one that Mr Spencer retires uncondition The Hon Richard Rush, of Pennsylvania, and Jas

Green, East, of New Jarsey, are both spoken of asbeing likely to be nominated to fill the vacancy in the Tressury. Probabilities certainly give the preference to the latter gentleman. My Green is the son of the late Rev Archibald Green, who filled the office of Chapinimto Congress, during the administration of General Washington. He is also known as one of the most listinguished and influential citizens of that state. Of his high legal attainments and general qualification for the office, there can be no doubt.
