The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 13, 1844. We give all the news of the riots of any interes received by yesterday's mail. If there is any additional information by this morning's mail we will issue a 2d edition at 8 o'clock. 14

The Times states that the Governor had arriv ed, and placed the city under Martial Law! We learn from the Philadelphia papers received this morning, that peace and quietness have been restored From the Providence R. I. Gazette, - April 7.

Conviction of Mr. Dorr .- We learn from Newport that Mr. Dorr was this morning convicted of Treason against this State. The Jury went out last night, and were out two hours and a quarter. We have since learned on coming into Court this morning, he moved an arrest of judgment, founded on a bill of exceptions ORFHAN ASYLUM.-The Orphan Asylum will hold its annual meeting in the First Presbyterian Church to morrow. The report of the Board of managers will be read, and several addresses will be delivered. The public are invited to attend. 2 P M.

FROM WASHINGTON.—The correspondent of the Baltimore Sun states that it is the general impression that the Tariff Bill of Ma Kay with the more than the superson J. W. BURBRIDGE & CO. that the Tariff Bill of Mr McKay, will be rejected. The Senate was engaged in an investigation of the -conduct of Tappan relative to the forwarding the Tex- Q TONS Juniata Blooms for sale as documents to the editor of the Evening Post. Some say he will be expelled. a23 A Mormon professor named Pratt has taken up his quarters here. He has invited the President and every member of Congress to come and hear the gospel preached in its purity. The idea of a termination of the present session on the 27th has completely evaporated. I presume the session will extend to the end of June.

The annual meeting of the Fittsburgh and Allegheny Orphan Asylum, will be held in the first Prisbyterian Church on Tuesday evening at 74 o'clock. The annual report of the Board of Managers will be ubmitted and several addresses delivered. The pub-Kc are respectfully invited to attend. may 13 1844.
