WM. SCHOLEY.

The frigate Brandywine, built in 1825, cost $290,218, and the repairs in 1838, had amounted to $377,665.

The aloep of war Falmouth, built in 1827, cost $94,093, and the repairs to 1841, had been $325,120.

Thus the expense for repairs on those three ships, during an average period of less than sixtéen years, amounted to $1,055,569, being $118,890 more than the continue control of the continue control of the continue control of the original cost—making the aggregate amount of cost and repairs $1,992,243, a sum sufficient to build largest frigates, if not to the ships of the line. It is also stated that eight per cent. of all the British and American vessels are annually condemned as irrepara-bly decayed or lost at sea. So rapid is the decay of the steambouts on the Ohio, Mississippi and other tribbary rivers, that they do not last over five years. These facts show at what a vast expense the usual aggregate umber of timber built vessels, which are constantly rification. They pussess all the boasted virtues of other pills, and are additionally efficacious, containing Sarsaparilla in their composition, which is not contained in any other pills in existence. They are also different from other pills in composition, being purely vegetable, and can be employed at all times, without any danger, and can use employed at an inner, without any danger, and requiring no restraint from occupation or usual course of living.

Notwithstanding Dr. Leidy never pretended his Blood Pills would cure all diseases, yet it is not saying on much of them, from the innumerable cures perform ed by them in every variety and form of disease (cer-tificates of many of which have been published from persons of all denominations, physicians, clergymen, and others) that they seem to be almost universal in their effect; and persons using them for whatever sickness or diseased, may rost assured that they will be found a more efficacious than any other pills in existence.

From the known reputation of Dr. Leidy's Blood Pill, it is necessary to remind the public where they can at all times procure the genuine, as it is attempted to impose other pills, called the 'Blood Pills' upon the public on the reputation of Dr. Leidy's.
