THOMAS PHILLIPS, EDITOR. PITTSBURGH, THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1844. the support of the democratic members.

FOR GOVERNOR,

H.A.MUHLENBERG

The article signed "Truth," in the Age of yesterday, misrepresents our notice of the meeting that was called for last Saturday afternoon. There was nothing of "an inflamatory nature" in our notice, but on the contrary, it was published for the purpose of preventing any occurrences that might cause excited feelings. We considered it very imprudent to call a public meeting while the country was so much excited by the outrageous doings of the mob in Philadelphia, and it was for the sake of public peace that we expressed, in mild language, our disapproval of the movement.-In this we feel certain that we thought, as did ninetymost prudent step that could be taken. The only thing we noticed that was inflamatory in this whole weather, was the call of the meeting, which indicated ted by the mob in Philadelphia. The same paper has the following paragraph: ATTACK NEAR THE CHURCH.-In consequence of a suggestion, no sentinels were placed on the avenues leading to St Philip's Church, Queen street, on Satur day night. About 9 o'clock a crowd had collected in the neighborhood, and the persons composing it, doubtless thinking that the guard had been withdrawn, onade an attack upon a house standing near the church, which was occupied by a Catholic family. After one or two stones had been thrown into this building, the military charged upon them, and quickly set them to flight; after this demonstration had beer ted to Head Quarters, the force at that post was reinforced by an additional company.

A report had obtained extensive circulation that one of the guard near St John's Church had shot a citizen that had disobeyed orders; upon inquiry we learn that the report is devoid of any foundation.

The Roman Catholic Churches were all closed duing yesterday, though we understand that early mass was celebrated at St John's Church. At dusk, the usual strict guard was stationed.
