Each spot where it hath flitted! A WOMAN BURIED ALIVE.

The Lewistown Falls Advertiser gives an account of the situation of a woman in Auburn, in the State of Maine, which is enough to make one shudder. It appears that about thirty years since, the wife of Moses Stevens became insane, and that for the most part of that time she has been confined, and for more than twenty years she has been chained in a filthy cage, tan or twelve feet square, the threshold of which, for tan or twelve teet square, the threshold of which, for the last half of that period, she has not crossed. She is now in her den, without a single window or a loop-thole to let in a ray of sunshine, and there bound with clanking chains! Her heart-stirring and agonizing prayer to God is that she may get into the green fields and the warm light.

Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agentia Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to not for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Bons, Knoxville county, Tennes e. or by land to Graham & Houston, Paswell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents to seversi counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medi-cine would be sold.
