TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 21, 1844. MILITIA MUSTER-Yesterday, the bulwark an safety of the country, the Militia, turned out

"All plaided and plumed in battle array," and looked quite formidable and furious. If John Bull had only been present to witness the display, he would have surrendered all claim to the Oregon at once, as he would have become convinced that any sacrifice of territory would be more prudent than to encounter so well disciplined, so orderly and heroica body as march ed through our streets yesterday. Every variety of dress and all descriptions of arms were visible -here was one with the stars and stripes wrapped around him-the head and neck of another was adorned with a wreath of shavings-several were dressed in the labiliments of Indians, and many had their peepers bunged and blackened. They drew after them a wagon, on which was a wooden cannon called the 'Peacemaker," and carried a banner with an inscription: "TAKEN AT THE MEMORABLE DEFEAT OF

CAPTAIN FISHER! LIBERTY OR DEATH! The 106th Regiment dispersed at an early hour, but the fantastics exhibited their patriotism until late in the afternoon. All who witnessed their marchings and countermarchings, admitted that "'Iwere worth ten years of peaceful life One glance at their array."

An Election for a member of the Select Counci to fill a vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr Totten, is to take place in the Fifth Ward to-day. Recollect the Fire Works to-night at Broad hurst's. 'Twill be a grand display. We are under obligations to Mr W H ALLEN, the attentive and gentlemanly Clerk of the Olive Branch, for St. Louis and Cincinnati papers, in advance of the mail.

RAIR.—For a week past, we have had a heavy M. or at Mrs. Jones' Boarding House Liberty, between shower of rain every day, which has caused a rise in | Third and Fourth streets our rivers, and or cught home some of our larger boats that were detained below.

CONCERT BY ARTOTAND MADAME CINTI DAMOREAU. -These distinguished musical artists are now in this city, and we are happy to understand that they will gratify our citizens with a concert to-morrow evening, at Concert Hall. Every lover of music has heard of the talent of these eminent performers, and it is unnecessary for us to say any thing more to induce them to go and hear them. They advertise that they will give but one entertainment.

ERRDID GEODS.—Messes. HAMPTON & SMITH are now opening at their store in Wood street, a very large and excellent assortment of Summer Dry Goods which is worthy the attention of purchasers. See ad-

We understand that all the Dry Goods Houses of our city have done a first rate business this season.-They have all had large and excellent assortments of Goods and they have sold them on the most liberal terms. Country merchants have found that they can purchase to better advantage in our city than they can in the eastern markets, and consequently many of those who formerly went to New York, laid in their stock in Pittsburgh.

SMITH'S TABLES .- These tables are intended to facilitate business, and to aid in the settlement of accounts, without a resort to the tiresome and laborious system of calculation, now in vogue. Their utility will be perceived at once by examining them. Cook has
