SPRING VERSES. The following most touching and musical Lines were writen by the late WILLIS GAYLORD CLARK, soon after the less of his wife. They will reach many a be reaved heart, in this season of savelling buds and scented airs. A SONG OF MAY. The Spring's scented buds all around me are swelling, There are song in the stream-there is health in the A scene of delight in each bosom is dwelling, As float the pure day dreams o'er mountain and v The verdure is fresh upon every tree; Of Nature's revival the charm, and a token Of love, oh thou Spirit of Beauty? to thee. The sun looketh forth from the balls of the morning And flushes the clouds that begint his career; In welcomes the gladness and glory returning To rest on the promise and hope of the year. Ie fills with rich light all the balm-breathing fl He mounts to the zenith, and laughs on the wave, He wakes into music the green forest bowers, And gilds the gay plains which the broad rivers lav The young bird is out on his delicate pinion, He timidly sails in the infinite sky; I greeting to May and her fairy dominion, He pours, on the West wind's fragrant sigh; d, above there are peace and pleasure— The woodlands are singing - the beaven is bright;

The fields are unfolding their emerald treasure, And man's genial spirit is souring in light. Alas for my weary and care-haunted bosom! The spells of the spring time arouse it no more; The songs in the wildwood, the slicen on the blossom The fresh welling fountain, their magic is o'er! When I list to the streums, when I look on the flowers, They tell of the Past, with so mournful a tone, That I call up the throngs of my long-vanished hours, And sigh that their transports are over and gone.

From the wide-spreading earth, from the limitless heaven,
There have vanished an eloquent glory and gleam: To my veiled mind no more is the influence given, Which coloreth life with the hues of a dream; The bloom colored landscape its leveliness keepeth, I deem that a light as of old gilds the wave; But the eye of my spirit in heaviness sleepeth, Or sees but my youth, and the vision it gave.

Yet it is not that age on my years bath descended, Tie not that its snow wreaths encircle my brow; But the newness and sweetness of Being are ended-I feel not their love-kindling witchery now; The shadows of death o'er my path have been sweepin There are those that have loved me, debarred from the day;

The green turf is bright, where in peace they a And on wings of remembrance my soul is away.

It is shut to the glow of this present existence, It hears, from the Past, a funeral strain; And it eagerly turns to the high seeming distance, Where the lost blooms of earth will be garnere ngain; Where no mildew the soft, damask rose check sha Where grief bears no longer the poisonous sting; There builts Death no dark sceptre can flourish, Or stain with his blight the luxuriant Spring.

This thus that the hopes which to others are given, all cold on my heart in this rich month of May; tho clear anthems that ring through the Heaven I drink the bland airs that enliven the day; And if gentle Nature, her testival keeping, Delights not my bosom, ah! do not condemn; O'er the lost and the lovely my spirit is weeping,

For my heart's fondestraptures are buried with them TCHEAP HARDWARE. A

If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to of for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennes. ee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tazwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medi. rine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whother you would like an agent at Bluntville, Sullivan County. East Tennesser; I can get ome of the merchants to act for you as I live near there. Yours respectfully, ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennessee.
