IMPORTANT FACTS. DR. LEIDY'S Sarsaparilla Blood Pills are applica ble in all cases, whether for Purgatives or Pu rification, They possess all the boasted virtues of other pills, and are additionally efficacious, containing Sarsaparilla in their composition, which is not contain ed in any other pills in existence. They are also dif-ferent from other pills in composition, being purely vegetable, and can be employed at all times, without any danger, and requiring no restraint from occupation or usual course of living.

Notwithstanding Dr. Leidy never pretended his Blood Pills would cure all diseases, yet it is not saying toe much of them, from the innumerable cures perfo ed by them in every variety and form of disease (cer-tificates of many of which have been published from persons of all denominations, physicians, clergymer and others) that they seem to be almost universal in their effect; and persons using them for whatever sickness or disease, may rost assured that they will be found more efficacions than any other pills in existence. From the known reputation of Dr. Leidy's Blood Il, it is necessary to remind the public where they can at all times procure the genuine, as it is attempted to impose other pills, called the 'Blood Pills' upon the public on the reputation of Dr. Leidy's. Be particular and ask for Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla Blood Pills and see that the name of N. B. Leidy is contained on two sides of each box, (the boxes being of paper, and oblong, squareshape, surrounded by a yellow and black

LEWISBERRY, York co., April 24, 1844.

LEWISBERRY, York co., April 24, 1844. Dear Sir:- I have taken the liberty of writing to you for some political information, in which my neigh-bors and myself feel some interest. The nomination of Heary A. Muhlenberg at the Damocratic candidate for Governor, is well retained here, and will be shown next October at the election. But at the same stock of the late Thomas Rafferty, deceased, has commenced business at the old stand of Mr. R., and is prepared to execute all descriptions of work in his line, in the best manner, and or the shortest notice. He keeps constantly on hand a large assortment of shoe for this reason I write to you, knowing that you are solicits the patrosage of the public and of the craft.

The despite constantly on hand a large assortment of shoe for this reason I write to you, knowing that you are solicits the patrosage of the public and of the craft.

The despite constantly on hand a large assortment of shoe for this reason I write to you, knowing that you are well acquainted with Mr. Muhlenberg, and have seen much of his course in public hundred. much of his course in public business, and I hope, if convenient you will gratify many of your friends here, by expressing your opinious of the Democratic candidate, and of the services he has rendered to democrat-

principles. I know no one to whom I can better apply than to I know no one to wnom a can control any one purself for this information, nor do I know any one partiafactorily received whose opinion would be more satisfactorily received I hope you will excuse me for troubling you at this ime, when you are so besily engaged at Washington.

I remain your friend and obedient servant. W. NICHOLS. To Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN.

WASHINGTON CITY, May 9, 1844. WASHINGTON CITT, May 9, 1844.

Dear Siri.—I did not receive your favor of the 24th ultimo, until yesterday; and as it has been so long delayed upon the way, I husten to give it an answer.—You ask me for information relative "to the public life and principles," of Henry A. Muhlenberg, the denocratic candidate for Governor, for the use both of your call and neighbors, and to instruct the table. self and neighbors, and you justly state that I "have seen much of his course in public business." I cheerfully recognize your right, as a respected democrat of the good old county of York, to make this callpon me, and I have only t regret that my pu gagements here are so various and pressing, that I cant spare the time to give you such an answer as I could desire and as you deserve

Previous to Mr Mullenberg's nomination, by the fourth of March Convention, my position was deserved.

strict neutrality between him and Mr Shunk. I know that both were pre-eminently qualified to conduct the present critical crisis; and should have been equally satisfied with the selection of either. Warmly and gratefully attached to both, I neither felt nor expressed a personal preference for the one over the other.

But the Convention have decided the question in favor of Mr. Muhlemberg: and I consider it extremely ortunate that, amidst our existing embarrassments, the nomination has fallen upon such a man. Formerly, in Pennsylvania, the wheels of the State Government THORN'S PULMONARY CANDY.

Sold and in daily use.—

We are confident of being the money, post paid, to the subscriber, will be attended to. For sale by the single demands a Governor, not only of unspotted integrity, but of extensive practical knowledge, sound judgment and unwavering firances. Mr Muhlenberg is the very man for the times. He possesses these qualifications, in an entinent degree, and above all, he is truly an honest man whom temptation can never seduce from the path of duty. During a long life, no shadow of suspicion has ever rested upon his personal integrity. It is impossible to be in his company for an hour without forming the most decided opinion that he is an honest man. Frank and fearless in his nature, as omes a democratic Statesman, he does not conceal his thoughts, but speaks right out like one who is he patronage of the pueire.

Every attention will be paid to furnishing COFFINS, fore the world. Under the administration of such a man, the people will cheerfully submit to taxation to redeem their plighted faith and the honor of our good old Commonwealth; because they will feel an entire confidence that their contributions will not be square dered by trading politicians, but will be faithfully applied to the payment of the public creditor.

Mr Muhlenberg is a native of Lancaster—the place of my own residence.

He is the son of the late Rev. or Muhlenbergh, who for many years previous to his leath had been the Pastor of the German Lutheran Church in that city, and was a man universally beloved by his own congregation and universally respected by all who knew him. Although he never took any active part in politics, yet his principles were known o have been strongly democratic. His son Henry early imbibed these principles and has ever since been democrat, not merely in profession, as so many are, t in principle; not merely in word but in I have been intimately acquainted with Mr Muhlen-perg ever since December 1829, when he first took his with his collengues, I soon learned to estimate highly the soundness and steadiness of his principles and that strong practical common sense for which he is distinguished. From the very first, he was considered by us as a great acquisition to the Pennsylvania Delega-tion. It is true that he spoke seldom, but when he did address the House, he was always listened to with prowhose names were daily in the newspapers.
